

President Proposes $13.5 Billion Income-Tax Slash

Cut Is Part Of 3-Year Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President John F. Kennedy proposed today the biggest income tax cut in history—a 13.5-billion-dollar slash to take effect in three annual steps between now and 1965.

Individual taxpayers eventually would save about 11 billion dollars a year under the top priority program which Kennedy unveiled in his State of the Union Message to Congress. The rest of the benefits would go to corporations.

First-stage rate cuts proposed for 1963 would total six billion dollars.

Kennedy said he wants individual tax rates whacked from the present range of 20 to 91 per cent "to a more sensible range of 14 to 65 per cent." He asked Congress to lower the top corporate rate from 52 per cent to the pre-Korea level of 47 per cent.

About one-fourth of the resulting revenue losses would be recouped through tax reforms, Kennedy said.

This lifting of the wraps from the long-awaited tax package was the high spot of the 4,500-word message, broadcast live on all national television and radio networks, in which Kennedy also:

Implied the United States and its allies are winning the cold war at a time when Sino-Soviet frictions reveal "the seeds of internal disintegration" in the Communist camp.

Challenged the Soviet Union to make a choice between continued conflict with the West and "the path to peace." The United States is ready for either eventuality, he declared.

Revealed the bare bones of a legislative program which, apart from taxes, ranges from the proposed creation of a domestic peace corps to enactment of the medicare plan.

Congress arranged a special joint session in the House chamber to hear the president deliver the address.

Kennedy described his tax package as "a fiscally responsible program—the surest and soundest way of achieving in time a balanced budget in a balanced full employment economy."

Although precise details won't be revealed until later this month, it was apparent

WEATHER FORECAST
Bay Area: Fair through tomorrow, not quite so cold; gentle wind.
Sierra Nevada: Fair through tomorrow; little temperature change.

ICE ON TOMALES BAY—Nine-year-old Mathew H. Lytle of Inverness registered surprise at finding a skin of ice on the shores of Tomales Bay yesterday, with slush ice floating on the bay surface.

Weather Puts Marin On Ice

Icy hillside roads, frozen water pipes and swim pools, broken water mains with several floods, and ice on the upper reaches of Tomales Bay were features today of the cold spell in Marin.

"Not so cold tomorrow" was the best the Weather Bureau could forecast, adding that it will be fair with gentle wind.

Marinwood reported a 19-degree reading at 7 a.m., under even frigid Woodacre, which reported a low of 23 today. This was duplicated in West Marin at the Inverness store.

Minimum temperatures for today were mostly slightly above those of yesterday. Tamalpais Valley reported a low of 24 yesterday, 27 today; Novato, 22 yesterday and 25 today.

San Rafael's low reading today was 32 degrees. Mill Valley registered 29.

Ice on the southern margins of Tomales Bay resulted from influx of fresh water in that area, diluting the salt content. There was an ice-skin along the shore and slush floating on the bay waters.

Automobile drivers were more charmed by icyicles drooping from drainpipes and eaves of their homes than by films of ice which formed overnight on many windshields of cars in the open. Some scrap-ared and others resorted to pouring hot water over the glass.

Birds were observed pecking in a puzzled sort of way at frozen bird-baths.

Lt. Col. William E. Wright, commanding officer of the 666th Radar Squadron atop Mount Tamalpais, said there had been ice for the past two mornings.

Scores of homes in various parts of Marin County were plagued by frozen water pipes.

Along with this a number of pipe breaks occurred, but just why this was nobody could explain. General manager William R. Seeger of Marin Municipal Water District denied that freezing was the cause but offered no other.

"We always get a rash of breaks when cold weather arrives," said Seeger. "A lot of people would like to know the answer. The cold is somehow connected but it's not a simple matter of the pipe breaking because of freezing."

At Rossi Garage, Francisco Boulevard and Harbor Street,

San Rafael, a six-inch water line broke. A display window was broken and the showroom was flooded, with damage to both cars and building, before the water could be shut off.

"You don't have such a big pipe as that freezing, even in this weather," said Seeger.

Portions of Dorset Lane, Meadow Drive and Ashford Avenue in Mill Valley were flooded yesterday morning after a water pipe broke at Dorset and Meadow.

Police Sgt. Ben Hartwell thought cold weather must be responsible. There was no property damage, though the water rose to depth of a foot on Meadow Drive. The break was reported to police at 7 a.m. and the pipe was repaired by the water district by 10 a.m.

Sausalitan Dies In Bedroom Fire

Ash Tray Is Found Near Body

Mrs. Ruth Harris Fisher of Sausalito, who operated a personnel agency in San Francisco, died shortly before noon today in a fire in the bedroom of her home.

She herself was not burned, but the bedding and mattress were badly damaged. Sausalito firemen rushed to the home at 11 Marie Street and found Mrs. Fisher, believed to be in her fifties, lying on the bedroom floor in her night clothes.

Firemen administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and cardiac massage without success. Death was believed to be from asphyxiation.

The cause of the fire was not pinpointed, but Fire Chief Mathew J. Perry noted that an ash tray lay on the bed.

Three pet cats were found alive in the home. Papers at the home indicated Mrs. Fisher operated Ruth Fisher's Carlton Personnel Agency in San Francisco.

A daughter-in-law in San Francisco was to arrive at Keaton's in San Rafael for funeral arrangements.

The house was saved, but Chief Perry said there was extensive smoke and water damage. The house is a one-story stucco structure with four rooms.

Rail Tunnel Hearing Set Again

The case for and against abandonment by Northwestern Pacific Railroad of its mainline Puerto Suello Tunnel will be argued again before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington on Feb. 12.

Contestants in the case were notified Saturday by the ICC that oral arguments by attorneys will be heard Feb. 12 at 10 a.m. before the ICC's Division 3—which handles railroad abandonment matters—at its Washington headquarters.

Oral arguments had been asked by Southern Pacific Co., which owns Northwestern Pacific, in its exceptions to finding by ICC examiner F. Roy Linn that the railroad should not be allowed to abandon the tunnel and must restore its San Rafael main line service. The City of San Rafael's answers to the exceptions protested against such oral argument, holding that the case had been adequately covered at the examiner's hearing in San Francisco.

Those hearings began last January, were recessed to March, again to April, then to June, finally winding up on June 8. Examiner Linn in September recommended denial of the railroad's application to abandon the line. The following month, Randolph Karr, attorney for the railroad, filed 88 pages of exceptions to the examiner's findings. These are turned over to the City of San Rafael and County of Marin.

BANKERS IN MARIN SHUN FREE PLATES

Banks in California are entitled under law to free automobile license plates, but few bankers in Marin were even aware of this until today.

The San Francisco Chronicle today published a story claiming that 1976 special "P.S." (for public service) license plates, all provided free by the state, were on bank-owned cars last month.

These, it claimed, included 536 cars and 53 trucks owned by Bank of America.

But Leroy Rudolph, manager of Bank of America's San Rafael branch, declared: "I never heard of it. I just paid $71 for the license on my car."

The same story said Wells Fargo Bank had 116 sets of the free plates. But Daniel C. Davis, manager of Wells Fargo Bank's San Rafael office, said, "It's the first I ever heard of it." He said the bank did not provide automobiles for its offices in Marin.

Crocker-Anglo National Bank got 227 sets of the free plates, according to the Chronicle story. But Peter Ferrarese, manager of Crocker-Anglo's Novato branch (where license plates are sold), said he was amazed at the report. "For sure they don't get them," declared Ferrarese.

Equally surprised was Wayne Hathaway, manager of Central Valley Bank's Novato branch.

Marin's newest bank will take advantage of the law, however, Byron Leydecker, president of Redwood National Bank in San Rafael, which opened this month, said P.S. plates would be put on the bank's only car for 1963. He said banks pay a higher tax rate from other businesses, and the free license plates are to make up in part for the difference.

The whole matter was of only academic interest to William P. Murray Jr., president of Bank of Marin, which opened only two months ago—for Bank of Marin does not own any cars. Murray said that to the best of his recollection, First National Bank-Bank of San Rafael, with which he was associated before its merger with Crocker-Anglo, never received free plates.

One bank official definitely taking advantage of his prerogative, however, is Charles Reinking, president of Exchange Bank of Santa Rosa. Reinking's Cadillac not only bears P.S. plates, but affixed to one of them is the six-pointed star of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, of which he is a director. This exempts him from paying toll.

The Chronicle said the definition of "bank" appeared to have been somewhat expanded by the Department of Motor Vehicles, as Title Insurance and Trust Co. had received free plates for 200 automobiles. But Paul R. Leahy, vice-president and manager of Title Insurance and Trust in San Rafael, said he drives a company-owned car "and there are no P.S. plates on my car."

Outraged over the whole idea of free license plates for banks was Mrs. Esther Dearth of Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. "We wouldn't have the nerve to ask for them, even if we are entitled to them," she said. Mrs. Dearth added she plans to take up the matter at the California Savings and Loan League convention in Palm Springs next month.

No Joint Clausen, Grader Meeting

There apparently will be no joint meetings of congressional candidates Donald H. Clausen and William F. Grader before the Jan. 22 special election. But individually they will be speaking in Marin tonight and tomorrow night.

Republican Clausen did not appear for a meeting yesterday in the Yountville Veterans Home in Napa County because, he said, "I wasn't invited." He said he had agreed to appear on Jan. 6, but that the meeting was cancelled by Democrat Grader and "we were never invited to come back."

This morning the Clausen

headquarters in San Rafael received a telegram from Mel Levine, news director of television station KVIQ in Eureka, cancelling the scheduled joint appearance on that station Wednesday.

Lavine said that Grader's representatives had demanded an additional 30 minutes after the scheduled 30-minute program in which to conduct a "question and answer program." This was "impossible to meet due to network commitments," the telegram said. So the show is cancelled.

A KQED program, which was to have been sponsored this week by the League of Women Voters, also went by the boards when the league withdrew as sponsor. Neither Clausen nor Grader would appear, the League said, although the third candidate in the race, Democrat John C. Stuart of Auburn and Novato, agreed to appear.

Stuart is going ahead with plans to appear on TV shows, expecting to be on KGO-TV tomorrow from 1 to 2 p.m.

Tonight at 8 o'clock in Nave Lanes, near Hamilton Air Force Base, Clausen will appear. See JOINT, page 5

Bagley Asks Freeze On Nursing Fee

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill to freeze state fees to nursing homes not lower than their Jan. 1 levels was introduced in the State Assembly today by Marin-Sonoma Assemblyman William T. Bagley.

The measure, which was referred to the Assembly Welfare Committee for study, was aimed at counteracting a Department of Finance order set-

CAR ROLLS, NOVATO MOTHER OF 3 DIES

A Novato woman nurse, and mother of three, was killed early today when her open roadster rolled over on Highway 101 entering Novato, seven-tenths of a mile south of Lamont Avenue.

The victim was Mrs. Mary Catherine Bumala, 38, of 46 Grove Lane, employed at Fairchild Semiconductor in San Rafael.

Her death was Marin County's second highway fatality of 1963. Only one died in Marin traffic in the first two weeks of last year.

Mrs. Bumala was driving northward alone in her Austin-Healey Sprite at 12:10 a.m. when her car swerved left into the divider section, went into a roadside skid and overturned.

Lincoln Krohn of Petaluma, following a quarter-mile behind, saw no other car near. He told the California Highway Patrol that he observed the lights of the Bumala car veering off and for an instant turning back in his direction.

Mrs. Bumala was found lying face down beside the car, unconscious and suffering from major head injuries. She was taken to Novato Hospital by United Ambulance and found to have suffered a skull fracture as well as other injuries throughout her body. Death occurred at 1:15 a.m.

Patrol measurements showed the car had gone along the divider 165 feet before returning to the left highway lane to travel another 66 feet.

Mrs. Bumala was born Dec. 14, 1924, in Wyoming. She came to California about 10 years ago around the time of the birth of the eldest of her three children, Philip. The others are Randy, 8, and Lisa, 5.

She was divorced four years ago and came to Marin County two years ago, joining Fairchild as nurse and also doing secretarial work.

Other survivors include a brother, Maj. Leonard E. Riner, now with the U. S. Army in Germany, and her mother, Mrs. Betty McCarty of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Her mother was flying here today. Meanwhile two neighbors were caring for the children at the Bumala home.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Virginia Law On NAACP Struck Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court struck down today a Virginia law which the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said had curbed its participation in litigation over racial discrimination.

The court said that while the case was brought by NAACP, the high tribunal was not deciding it with any consideration of race or racial discrimination.

The court condemned the state statute as a violation of the federal Constitution's guarantee of free speech.

Dock Strike In 23rd Day

NEW YORK (AP)—The Atlantic and Gulf Coast dock strike entered its 23rd day today with federal mediators hopeful of resuming joint negotiations.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and federal mediators stood by during the weekend, to be on hand if any change came in the positions of the ship owners or the Longshoremen's Union.

Freezes To Death

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A man apparently froze to death yesterday while pinned for four hours in the wreckage of his car during nine-degree weather.

Sheriff's Capt. Aubrey Floyd said the car driven by Andrew Lurry Jr., 23, Memphis, overturned beside a suburban road. He said Lurry was thrown out of the car and held flat on the ground by the auto's left front door until discovered four hours later.

Gas Death For Three

FRESNO (AP)—Bottled gas escaping in a ranch house where a heater had been turned up high because of the cold killed three children yesterday and left three other persons seriously ill.

Patsy Amerson, 15; her brother, David, 9, and their 16-month-old niece, Janna Kaye Black, were found dead in the house outside the nearby town of Huron.

Kroeger Trial Due

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Ralph and Iva Kroeger, in whose basement police unearthed the bodies of a Santa Rosa couple last August, were scheduled to go on trial tomorrow for first degree murder.

Iva, 44, and Ralph, 61, are accused of slaying Mildred and Jay Arneson, and then burying the bodies under cement in their home here. Kroeger has pleaded innocent and his wife has pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity.

The trial was slated to begin at 10 a.m. in the court of Superior Judge Harry Neubarth.

Fanfani Victory

ROME (UPI)—Premier Amintore Fanfani emerged with a clear victory over Italy's Socialists today in the most serious test yet posed for his year-old center-left government.

The Socialists, who had threatened last month to topple the government if it did not create regional governments before national elections are held this spring, wound up last night backing down completely.

Saved By Brother

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A 14-year-old boy jumped into the cold waters of San Francisco Bay yesterday and saved his 10-year-old brother from drowning.

Donald Howard, 14, and brother Jeffrey, shouted until port authority employee Ernest H. Jensen, 56, heard them, threw the boys a life preserver and pulled them to safety.

Jeffrey fell in when he tripped off the deck of a barge. "I was just lucky my brother heard the splash," Jeffrey said.

$55 MILLION STATE AID PLAN ASKED

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The state welfare study commission suggested to Gov. Edmund G. Brown and the legislature today that public "cash dote" programs be changed to "social service."

In its final report after a two-year study, the commission recommended a far-reaching program to grant liberalized benefits to 20,000 disabled persons and 19,000 needy families.

A spokesman estimated the price tag at $55.5 million dollars but said $42.2 million dollars would come from the federal government. This leaves a little more than 13 million dollars to be picked up by state and local governments.

TO ASK ADOPTION

Winslow Christian, who headed the study group and was recently named state health and welfare agency administrator, told newsmen that adoption of the entire program would be asked of the 1963 legislature.

The legislature reconvened today after taking a long weekend off since last Thursday. It will be the lawmakers' second week of the session.

Christian said that about 25 percent of California's 17 million population is in "some danger" of being unable to support itself. He blamed the rapid rise in automation, the high rate of high school dropouts and comparatively low wages and underemployment of much of the agricultural labor force.

RELIEF ROLES

Them ajob costs would come from addition of federal-state-local relief rolls of 20,000 totally disabled persons and 19,000 families with needy children under new statutes recommended by the commission.

Of the total expense, $7 million dollars would be added through extension of Aid to Needy Children assistance to the children of unemployed parents. This would mean that when the parents' unemployment compensation halts, they would be shifted to ANC.

The 18.5-million-dollar increase in the aid to totally dependent program would come from liberalizing the definition of disability to cover these persons who can't get jobs because of permanent disability.

To spread the cost more equitably, the commission recommended adoption of a complicated formula for state-county cost sharing. Christian said there were "shocking inequities" in local costs.

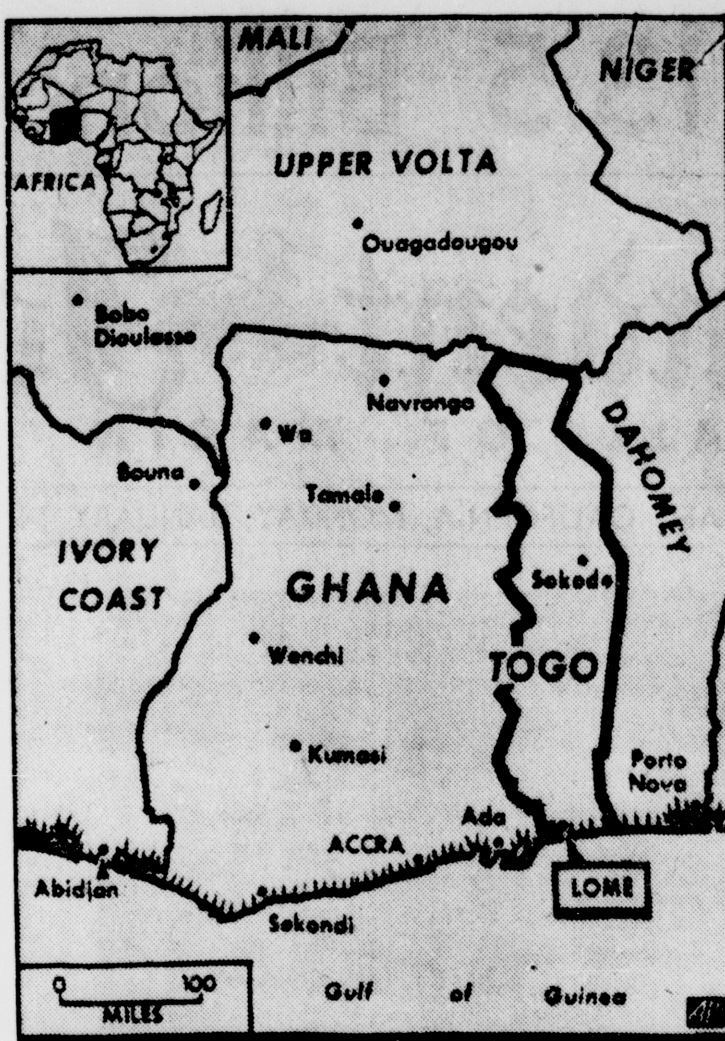

For example, he said, the welfare assessment for $100 in Mono County is nine cents while it is $1.10 in Lake County and the statewide average is 42 cents.

Another major recommendation was that the state welfare board be changed from a policy-making body to one that would concentrate on research.

Its present powers would be transferred to the state department of social welfare.

Destroyed By Fire

HONG KONG (AP)—An estimated 700 squatter huts were destroyed and 4,000 people made homeless in this refugee-packed British colony Friday night by a fire that raged for four hours.

TOGO—Map locates the West African country of Togo where President Sylvanus Olympio was host to death yesterday. Inset shows position of area in Africa.

TOGO PRESIDENT SLAIN; NEW PROBLEM FOR U.S.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The United States likely can expect a far less friendly regime to succeed the one of murdered Sylvanus Olympio in the little land of Togo in West Africa.

The situation in Togo still is unclear. But the first cloudy signs indicate that the men who assassinated President Sylvanus Olympio and left his body outside the U.S. Embassy yesterday want a militantly nationalist government, less tied to the West. The action took place at Lome, the capital.

The White House, when informed of Olympio's death, issued a statement that "the United States government is profoundly shocked by the news of the assassination."

Olympio visited the United States on an aid-seeking mission last March and President John F. Kennedy praised him as "an exceptional

SYLVANUS OLYMPIO

The London-educated Olympio was the only African head of state with a command of both English and French, and he also knew some German. His language skills earned him an influential position in African councils.

Three forces figure in the background of Togo's troubles: The persistence of tribalism, the influence of President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, and, most important, the impatience of radical youths.

In Africa, young people, because they usually are more educated than their elders, occupy posts of greater importance than young people anywhere else in the world. Nevertheless, an older generation still controls the key positions of power.

This frustrates and angers the young. They are so close to power and yet it eludes them.

Throughout Africa, a class of angry young men is growing.

During his regime, which began four years ago, Olympio, 60, had been plagued with opposition from the Juvento—a party that sprang out of the youth wing of his own party. The powerful Juvento—prohibited to run candidates in Togo—long had criticized Olympio for his poor relations with Ghana.

It is not yet known whether Idrissou Antoine Meatchi, reportedly returning from exile in Ghana to succeed Olympio, is a leader of Juvento. But at 27, he surely is identified as a leader of Togo's angry young men.

Meatchi, a French-educated Moslem and former civil servant, had been arrested in 1960 for conspiracy. He went to Ghana after his release in mid-1961.

Friends of Olympio will put much blame for his death on Ghana's Nkrumah, whose Pan-African magnetism attracts radical young who oppose the pro-Western governments in other African nations near Ghana. Although young intellectuals inside Ghana dislike Nkrumah, young intellectuals outside Ghana look to him to lead them in militant nationalism, cold war neutralism and intense socialism.

Big Power Tieup Offered

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—California's four major electric utility companies have offered to construct extra-high-voltage (EHV) transmission lines between their systems and the Pacific Northwest for power interchange.

Charles F. Luce, Bonneville Dam power administrator had invited suggestions for the interchange which would assure "the most feasible and economic plan for construction and use of intertie facilities."

The California firms—Pacific Gas and Electric, Southern California Edison, California Electric and San Diego Gas and Electric—made their joint proposal in a letter to Luce yesterday.

The four companies said their offer would result in the reduction of federal expenditures by 100 million dollars, the increase of tax revenues by at least 110 million dollars for a 20-year period and benefits for both regions through the exchange of energy.

Additionally, they said the move would make available "virtually the entire California market for surplus Bonneville energy."

The initial EHV line, a 500,000-volt transmission facility, would run from the Oregon line to Los Angeles and would cost about 100 million dollars according to the four firms.

PG&E executive Vice President Robert H. Gerdes, in commenting on the offer, said that "most importantly, the proposal will eliminate a major federal expense at a time when it is urgent that non-essential government spending be reduced in order to make a tax reduction possible."

The Red Cross said all future shipments of ransom supplies will be made by ocean freighter. The steamship Shirley Lykes is being loaded at Baltimore with 6,500 tons of food, drugs and medical supplies for delivery in Havana.

The Shirley Lykes will stop at Port Everglades, Fla., to load an additional 1,000 tons of supplies. It is expected to reach Cuba about Jan. 18.

A tearful, yet joyous scene unfolded at Miami International Airport when the 89 refugees arrived. Sixty-eight of the group were Cubans possessing American citizenship. The other 21 were Cubans but either the husband or wife had U. S. citizenship or their children were born in this country.

The Cuban-Americans had lived in the United States previously and for one reason or another — mostly homesickness — had returned to their native Cuba.

They said they were returning to America because of problems in Cuba, including food shortages, inability to get work, and disillusionment with the revolution.

Aerial Exodus Of Cuba Refugees Ends

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The aerial exodus of refugees from Fidel Castro's Cuba has halted, following an airlift of 89 Cubans and Cuban-Americans to Miami yesterday. At present there are no plans for resuming it.

American Red Cross officials announced there will be no more flights carrying ransom supplies to Cuba. Pan American World Airways, which suspended its twice daily Miami-Havana flights at the onset of the Cuban crisis last October, is not anxious to resume the unprofitable service.

The Pan Am DC-6-B that made yesterday's refugee flight had taken 15,000 pounds of medicines to Cuba as another installment on the $3-million-dollar ransom guaranteed Castro.

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—The United Nations prepared today to send a special emissary to Katanga to demand that President Moise Tshombe surrender his stronghold or face U. N. attack.

Diplomatic informants said they believed the Katanga president was rallying his followers for a last-ditch stand to try to hold what remained of his secessionist domain.

The emissary was to warn Tshombe that if he did not peacefully surrender Kolwezi—center of Katanga's mining industry—the United Nations would fly in a Gurkha battalion to take it by force.

Tshombe also was to get notice that if his followers carried out threats to blow up the mining installations and electric power dam in the area, he might be sent to Leopoldville for trial by the central Congo government as a war criminal.

and sabotage.

Sources at U. N. headquarters in New York reported that Indian U. N. troops have taken over Shinkolobwe, once Katanga's biggest military base, 15 miles southwest of Jadotville and about 90 miles southeast of Kolwezi.

Rail service was reported restored between Elisabethville and Mokambo near the border of Northern Rhodesia, and trains began moving over it yesterday with badly needed food supplies from Rhodesia to the Katanga capital. The United Nations occupied Mokambo Thursday after Tshombe drove ahead of advancing U. N. troops calling on his battered forces not to resist.

Tshombe slipped back into Kolwezi Saturday night after a one-day visit to Northern Rhodesia. Some sources believed he had returned to try to dissuade diehard members of his cabinet from dynamiting the city. Others felt that Tshombe was convinced a unified Congo would doom any political future he might have and was determined to make a final stand.

Water Permit

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The State Water Rights board today announced it has issued a permit to Joseph A. Lunny Jr. of Inverness for 6.4 acre feet of water annually, from water diverted from an unnamed stream tributary to Schooner Bay, to be used for domestic, stockwatering and recreational purposes. The estimated cost of the project is $3,000.

Pomona Freeway Accident Kills 7

POMONA (UPI)—Seven persons were killed early yesterday, including an Air Force physician, his infant daughter and his parents, in one of the worst freeway accidents on record in the Los Angeles area.

Two other persons were seriously injured in the three-car collision which began when a car crossed the divider strip on the San Bernardino Freeway and smashed head-on into the doctor's car which was then struck by a sports car.

The California Highway Patrol identified the dead as: Capt. Lowell D. Sousa, 29, San Bernardino, the doctor assigned Norton Air Force Base, Cynthia Sousa, 1, his daughter.

Manuel E. Sousa, 58, Portsmouth, R.I., and his wife, Alerina Sousa, 55, Capt. Sousa's parents.

King Edward Johns, 50, Covina, driver of the car which jumped the divider.

Sally Gutierrez, 20, Ontario, driver of the sports car.

Mona Navarro, 24, Upland, a passenger in the sports car. Injured were Sousa's wife, Evelyn, 28, and another passenger in Miss Gutierrez's car, Larry Baca, 17, Ontario.

All victim's in the Sousa car were dead on arrival at Pomona Valley Hospital. The other three died about two hours later.

Leopard Kills Zoo Keeper In San Diego

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—"The leopard had the man down... he was chewing on the man's face... I said, 'oh God, the man's dead!'"

A 14-year-old youth thus described the fatal clawing Saturday of veteran zoo keeper James Tuttle, 35, Encinitas, by an enraged black leopard at the San Diego zoo.

CAT JUMPED
"The cat just jumped through the air and landed on the man's back, knocking him down," said Rick Adams of Arcadia, who had been watching Tuttle feed animals. "The only sound I heard was a low grunt. There were no screams."

Zoo officials said Tuttle apparently threw the wrong lever among several that regulate the movement of animals from the cage. He was putting horse meat in the cages when the leopard squeezed through his cage door and attacked from behind.

"I don't think he ever saw it coming," said chief zoo security officer Frank Bonnet. Tuttle, badly mangled on the head, neck and arms died en route to a hospital.

BOY SCREAMS
Young Adams' terrified screams brought another zoo attendant when the leopard started down a path toward the public area of the zoo after the lightning attack.

Augie Campos, 32, grabbed a bamboo pole and forced the animal back into his cage. "I kept hitting at his eyes," Campos said. "Finally the leopard backed into his own cage and I slammed the door."

The leopard's angry growls were heard by several among the throng at the world famed zoo, but only a few were aware of the fatal attack.

Young GOP Conflict Breaks Into Open

By CHAPIN A. DAY

A simmering conflict in Marin Young Republicans broke into the open over the weekend and a compromise slate for tomorrow night's election of the organization went out the window.

The catalyst was an anonymous letter which purported to be a review of the compromise which put up a slate headed by Donald G. Black of San Rafael, a moderate, as the presidential nominee, and Clifford A. Gerstner of Greenbrae, a conservative, as vice presidential nominee.

The letter disintegrated into an attack on conservative extremists. Both sides denied authorship.

Walter McGovern of Marinwood had been the conservatives' presidential nominee until he stepped out in the nominating compromise so as not to precipitate a fight just before the Jan. 22 special congressional election. Today he charged Black has abrogated the compromise "on at least three occasions," and called for "a free and open election" tomorrow night.

McGovern said Black has sent out three letters which broke the compromise and that he now is actively campaigning for election as president.

William D. Keeler of Mill Valley, one of the chief Black supporters, said the campaign had gone even beyond the anonymous letter stage. He said new Young Republican members, particularly in the Novato area, had received anonymous telephone calls. When they lifted their receivers, the caller merely said, "You dirty, right-wing extremist!" and hung up.

Keeler said no portion of the compromise agreement had been broken by Black's letters. He said Black had been attempting to explain the compromise and smooth over the anonymous letter.

The executive committee of the organization is to meet tonight at Gerstner's home. McGovern said tonight's meeting should produce "rules for the election," because he is now an active candidate.

To Visit Civic Center

M. Frank Donohue Retires, 'Oldtimers' Are All Gone

Marin's County Courthouse will never be the same. A year ago we had three "oldtimers" in key elective positions in our county government. Now we have none.

Two of them we lost unhappily. County Clerk George Jones and County Auditor Leon DeLisle died unexpectedly. The third one we lost happily.

We say happily not that we are happy to be rid of him, but that he can now have the time to devote to his home and wife, Jane, with whom he celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary two years ago.

He had planned to take this ease two years earlier. But the announcement of his retirement unleashed such a scramble to succeed him, that he decided to finish out his eighth four-year term as treasurer-tax collector.

The scramble was doubly interesting because in the seven times M. Frank Donohue (his first name is Martin) ran for re-election, he never did have an opponent, something of a record which bears mute testimony to both the job he did and his own personality.

And that personality will be missed too. Quiet, self-effacing Donohue always seemed to remain calm and then plunge on ahead to get a job done.

That ability has kept Marin County's financial affairs both up to date and efficient.

We give Frank Donohue our sincere and heartfelt thanks for his many years of public service. We wish both him and Mrs. Donohue a long, healthy retirement.

And now the "oldtimers" are gone from the Courthouse. As we move into our new Civic Center we would wish that the "youngtimers" and those who follow them, will be as devoted and effective in their times as the "oldtimers" were in theirs.

HIGH PRICE OF NEGLECT

This has been the bloodiest of centuries. More than 80 million human beings have perished in brutal warfare, slave labor camps, gas chambers or wholesale purges.

(A moral breakdown stemming from selfishness in weakening the family, church and school and is helping the anti-God forces in their all-out effort to subjugate the entire earth in our lifetime.

Yet by God's grace we have in our hands the solution for many human ills.

The French journalist and author, Francois Mauriac, spoke of this with sorrowful regret when he said: "It is obvious that a politics inspired by Christian humanism would have preserved us from the shame under which we now falter."

Do your part to help men live, think and act as responsible human beings.

Help make the last part of this century distinguished for peace and justice rather than for catastrophe.

"This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me." (Mark 7:6)

Allow me to play a decisive role, O Holy Spirit, in shaping a better world.

HENRY MacARTHUR COLUMN

Candidate Using Congressman's Free Mailings To Tell A Story

By EDWIN S. CAPPS (For Henry MacArthur)

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—We were just about getting resigned to, but not happy with, this new postal increase which requires 5 cents for a first class letter when along came some material from a congressional candidate, mailed for free under the postage "frank" of the late Congressman Clem Miller.

All congressmen and senators enjoy this free mailing privilege, although this was the first time we knew the right passed on to their employees after they passed on.

The fact that the employee, William Grader, happens to be the Democratic candidate for Congress to succeed Miller must make it downright helpful to Grader's campaign budget.

The news release from Grader was very carefully non-political. It was mailed under the heading of "Office of Congressman Clem Miller," and dealt with a statement of Stewart Udall, secretary of the interior. Udall was assuring Grader that Grader's recommendations to restore northern California's salmon and steelhead trout fishery will be included in Kennedy administration legislation to be presented to congress this month.

The news release noted that Grader was district representative for the late congressman and is continuing in that capacity for the office until a new congressman is elected Jan. 22. It said he was returning his salary to the treasury.

OF COURSE, Grader's high-powered campaign is putting out many other publicity releases, with postage paid, so if the public happens to realize that the Grader in the official congressional business story on the salmon and steelhead is a candidate for congress, that's a chance he'll have to take.

While Grader's story indicates he is busily looking out for the future of the salmon and steelhead, there's a question of the urgency of the problem that required Udall to come out to Santa Rosa to confer with Grader and the subsequent issuance of the news story.

IT SEEMS THAT, a month or two ago, Congressman John D. Dingell of Michigan, chairman of the Committee on Fisheries and Marine Affairs, along with Congressman Harlen Hagen (D-Calif.) and others, were in California to make a tour of the state. They looked over the salmon and steelhead situation and left "very favorably impressed," according to the state Department of fish and game.

Dingell said he would push a bill on the subject this year and that the need throughout the nation might be great enough that the bill would include help for anadromous fish all over the country. In such an event, he said, California would get the greatest share, of course.

SO, IN OTHER words, it appears the California salmon and steelhead were doing pretty well even before Grader started meeting with Udall and sending out "official" news stories about it.

There's one bet the congressional candidate may have missed. This novel approach in mailing now is being used by the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation district office in Sacramento, which also does its mailing without benefit of the new 5-cent stamp.

The envelope, as well as the material inside of the bureau's letter, was stamped: "This is a news item, not an advertisement."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Didn't Dictate YR Officers

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

In all fairness to Assemblyman Bill Bagley, who is working for all of us in Sacramento, and to myself, as Republican Central Committee chairman, I must take exception to the incorrect statements made in the letter of Mrs. Joyce Elliott and printed in your Jan. 10 issue.

Frankly, I wish that Mrs. Elliott had taken time to call me to determine the facts before "taking her pen in hand." However, it is her right to write as she sees fit, either with or without the facts.

The office of the county chairman, at least among the Republicans, has not and does not enter into the naming of individuals who will compose the officers and board members of the Republican volunteer groups.

Occasionally, the county chairman will be asked to "sit in" and to act as an advisor or impartial mediator when there is a difference of unresolved opinion between two or more sincere volunteer group members.

No county chairman asks to serve in such a position and strongly urges all parties to work out their own problems within their own ranks. However, when the county chairman is asked by both sides to act in this capacity, then he must and should act with all the fairness and statesmanship at his command.

This was the case on Dec. 28.

The county chairman has made no recommendations as to whom should be nominated as officers or as board members of the Marin Young Republicans. But we did strongly recommend the nomination of men and women who would join ranks and work for the good of our country, county and party.

Neither did Assemblyman Bagley state that there was only one man in the YRs who would be acceptable to him. In fact YR President Chuck Michaels was urged by both sides to consider serving as president for another term. This he declined with thanks.

Mrs. Elliott did not have the facts at the time she wrote her letter and it was most unfair for her to state "the decision was made by the Chairman of the County Central Committee and by our esteemed Assemblyman."

At the conclusion of the meeting members from both groups strongly expressed themselves as to the fairness and impartiality with which the discussions were handled.

In all fairness to Mrs. Elliott, she has been a faithful

Must Go Up Toward Decency

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

"How low can you go!"

This is the theme of a current dance where the dancers go lower and lower under the limbo pole. It also seems to be the theme of many movies and lately movie titles as well. As far as I am concerned they have both just gone as low as they can go when I hear a movie advertised with the title, "I Spit On Your Grave."

I shudder when I try to imagine what this masterpiece is about. Does it sound like the picture we need in this world today to promote decency and good will among men?

How long can we go without censorship? I don't want censors, I want decency. Why not boycotts? Movie makers seem to understand $$$, not only boycott of movies by patrons, but refusal of newspapers and radio stations to advertise such trash.

We have reached a low and there is just one direction—up—and return to decency. We don't need another government agency to organize the program. There are enough social organizations (churches, clubs, groups) interested in decency to do the job. Let's use our pens, telephone and influence to back the attack for decent motion pictures.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

One of the troubles with statistics is that astute politicians can make them prove just about anything that suits their purposes.

Once when Winston Churchill was in the middle of a tough battle in the House of Commons, an opponent challenged him to back some of his statements with "official statistics." Sir Winston whipped a paper out of an inside pocket and reeled off a series of figures that sent his opponent reeling.

On the way home that evening, Sir Winston's secretary marveled, "How were you able to produce those statistics, sir? Had you asked me to compile them for you, it would have taken me six months to dig them up."

"Exactly," purred Sir Winston. "And it will take the opposition six months to discover that I made them up out of thin air."

Cartoon in a religious weekly depicts an usher passing a collection plate at a church wedding. The caption reads, "I admit, sir, it's a bit extraordinary—but the bride's father insisted on it."

Retired Lighthouse Keeper Can't Stay Far Away From The Ocean

There is a wonderful man who lives in Bolinas on Wharf Road behind The Highlands called John S. McGrath. He is Irish-born, 83 years old and has lived many lives.

He has been a Marine serving in the Spanish American War in the Philippines. He has been a lighthouse keeper of three lighthouses. Now he is content to watch the Bolinas lagoon from his kitchen window, study the tides and listen to the wind howl by.

"It is blowing from the southeast today," he said, "If it came from the northwest, it would blow the flowers to pieces."

McGRATH LOVES the sea. He would like to live right on it, but since he can't, prefers to live in Bolinas more than any place in the world.

On the wall of his kitchen is hung a plate. Picturing a house, a note on the plate reads: "This is my house and I do as I darn please." This is the way McGrath talks, in plain talk.

"We used to use the old Crag Jorgensen 30.06 rifle," he said. "The Filipino used everything — Spanish guns, bolos. Fighting was in the jungles." He never killed a man, he said.

McGRATH WAS later stationed in the Virgin Islands where he met and married his wife.

The white-topped man served as lighthouse keeper five years at Point Arena, 14 years at Humboldt Bay and six years, until retirement in 1944, at the Two Brothers in San Pablo Bay. He is one of 18 Spanish American War vets in Marin.

The former lighthouse keeper does some cabinet work, specializing in inlaid craft. Of the sea he says, "If you're with it long enough, you get so you can't keep away from it."

MRS. CHARLES E. Mott of Homestead Valley, who has been almost totally deaf for many years, is able to hear and laugh again.

Her doctor attributes the rehearing to "progress of science."

Leo Bartholomew Edson and his wife had four girls, then last week received a boy. He will be called Leo Joseph Edson, said Big Leo.

Why not Junior? we asked. Leo said he couldn't spell his middle name for years, that's why.

"WE DON'T FEEL that KPFA and its policies need any protection through secrecy," S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley said last week, "because everything that Pacific Foundation does is not only fully in the open but we're darned proud of it."

JOE WILSON, hummingbird man of The Mountain, has learned how to cut down on supplies for his bird feeders.

He now uses a clear syrup instead of coloring it red and has painted the spouts on the feeders with his wife's fingernail polish. Mrs. Joe, Joe's wife, said he got the idea from the January National Geographic.

Also a raccoon man, Joe says he has solved Gretchen Grul's biscuit baking problem by buying dog biscuits in 25 pound bags for his raccoons. "I never bake my own raccoon biscuits," says Joe.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Four Million Republicans Having Vote Taken From Them In House

WASHINGTON — There is something politically rotten, and it isn't in Denmark; it is in the United States.

The scandal of the 1962 elections — a poisonous corruption of democratic government—is that 4,020,800 Republican voters are having their votes taken from them in Congress.

This scandal is now in the open because it emerges incontrovertibly from a detailed tabulation of the congressional voting.

The facts are these:

FACT ONE—The Republicans won 48 per cent of the nationwide vote for the House of Representatives and received only 40 per cent of the seats. The Democrats won 52 per cent of the nationwide vote and, as Congress convened this week, found they had 60 per cent of the seats.

FACT TWO—If the Republican voters were allowed to have as many congressional seats as their voters entitled them to have, there would be 209 Republicans in the House instead of 176—or a gain of 33 House seats instead of a gain of two.

FACT THREE—The device districting of congressional seats which operates overwhelmingly to the advantage of one party.

The effect of this distorted districting is that the Republican Party won one seat in the House of Representatives last fall for every 137,000 votes cast for Republican House candidates, while the Democrats, by contrast, won one seat for every 100,000 votes cast for Democratic candidates.

But I hasten to point out that there is no basis whatsoever for pointing a partisan finger in placing the blame for this egregious miscarriage of representative government.

What has been happening is that the massive movement of population to the suburbs without corrective redistricting has brought about a condition in which most of the oversized congressional district, which causes the Republican Party to get only 40 per cent of the seats with 48 per cent of the vote and enables the Democrats to get 60 per cent of the seats with 52 per cent of the vote is the distorted districts are represented by Republicans and more of the undersized districts are represented by Democrats.

Perhaps the most revealing indicator of the handicap is the disparity between the share of the vote won by Republican House candidates last November and the House seats taken by the Republicans.

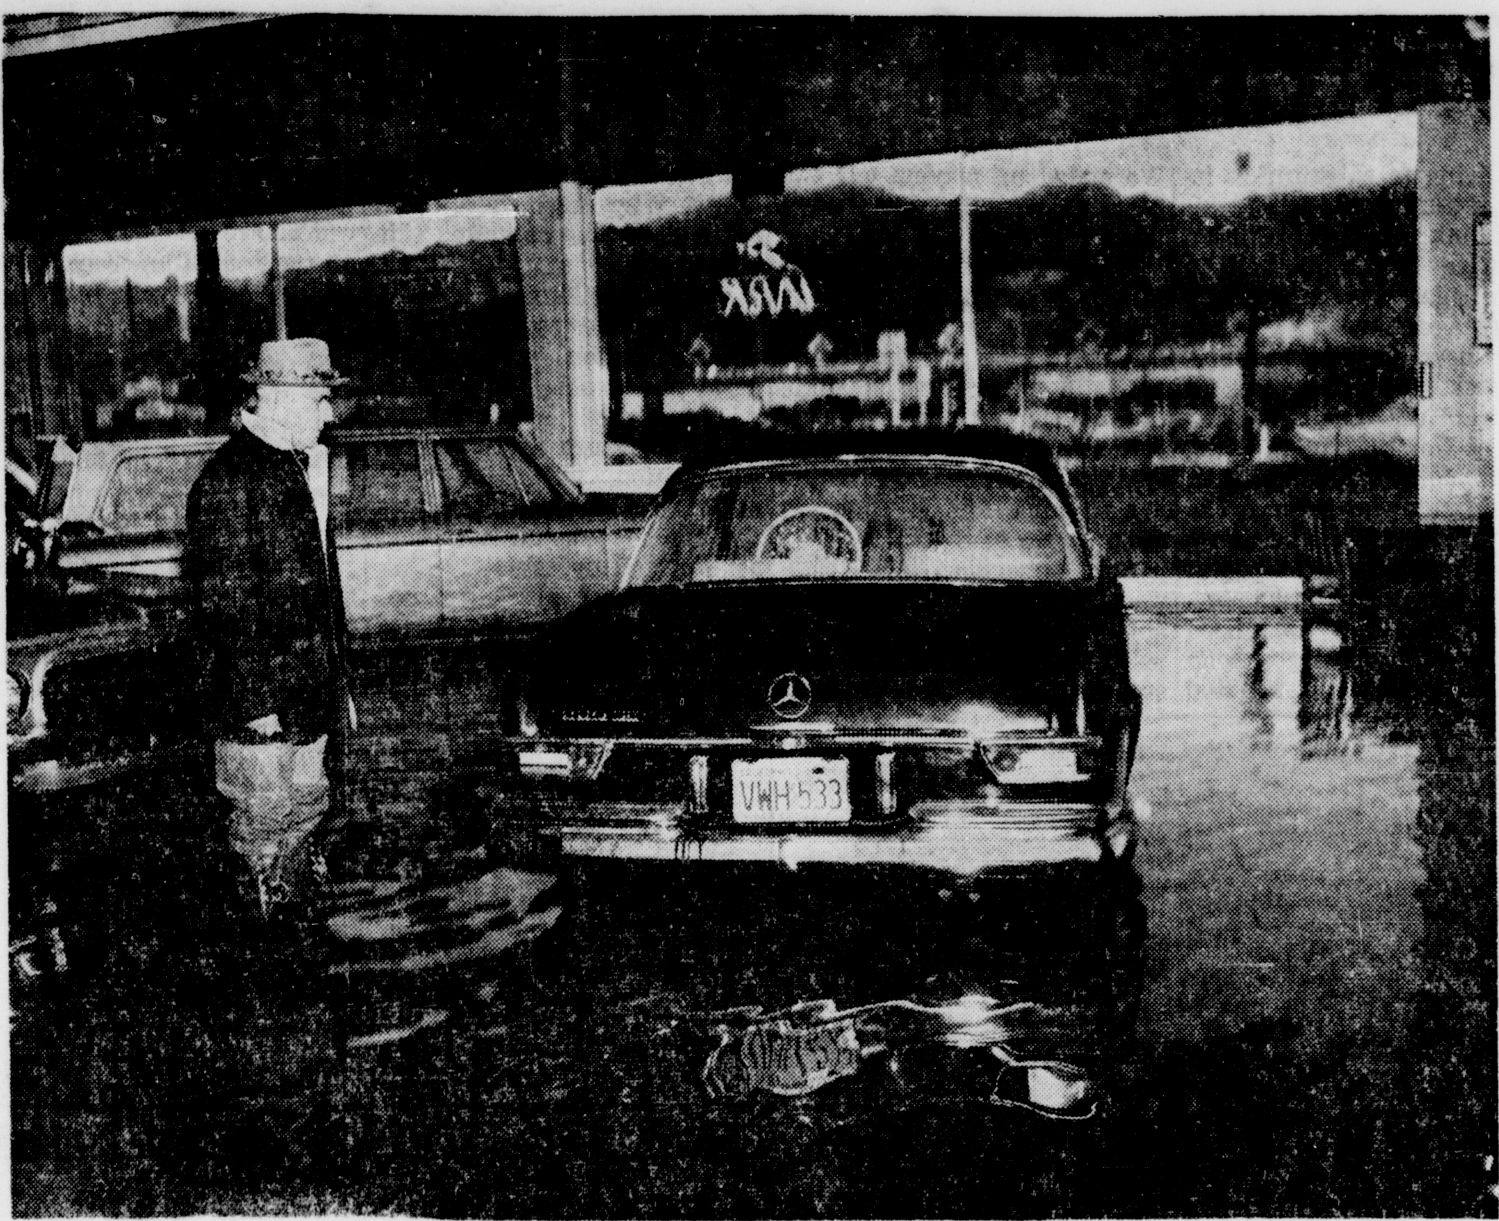

IN CALIFORNIA for example, 48 per cent of the vote cast for House candidates was Republican, but only 34 per cent of the House seats were won by Republicans. In Connecticut the percentages were 46 and 17; in Texas, 44 per cent GOP votes, 9 per cent of the House seats. A dozen states had similar disparities.

All of these facts — and more to the same effect—will shortly be in the hands of Republican members of Congress. The needed reform is non-partisan because the overriding issue is fairness to the voters by ending this new form of "taxation without representation."

"It's funny that men will fight for the right to say what they think—and then say so much without thinking."

Sandoval Still Sick, Doctor Says

One of three witnesses called by Jaime Enrique Sandoval, one-time San Rafael hospital orderly who was committed to Atascadero State Hospital in 1961, testified today in a Redwood City court that Sandoval is still a sexual psychopath within the meaning of the law.

The witness, Dr. Victor L. Overholt, a psychiatrist at Atascadero, testified this morning in a hearing before Judge Frank B. Blum in San Mateo County Superior Court, Redwood City.

Judge Blum recessed the hearing until this afternoon, when he was expected to rule on whether Sandoval has been cured as a sexual psychopath.

Sandoval was the central figure in the 1960 deaths of Donald and Virginia Douglas of Millbrae. He was with Mrs. Douglas in Puerto Rico when she fell off a cliff. He also returned from there with Douglas, who later was found dead in his parked car in Lucas Valley. Sandoval subsequently was convicted of lewd acts involving the couple's two teen-age sons.

The second witness for Sandoval today was Dr. Joseph Andriola, also a psychiatrist at Atascadero, who said the patient still needed treatment but might benefit by private care outside the institution. Marion O. Henry, a social service technician at the state hospital, said Sandoval was a good worker in the arts, drama and various duties assigned to him.

The state called no witness, but based its case on reports previously filed by two other psychiatrists, Dr. Gerald Smith of Burlingame and Dr. Walter Rappaport, superintendent and medical director at Agnew State Hospital.

McInnis wrote the ICC urging prompt action to decide the case. He pointed out that mainline rail service to San Rafael has been non-existent since a fire collapsed part of the Puente Suello Tunnel on July 20, 1961.

Saturday's announcement of a date for oral arguments in Washington "was hardly the answer we wanted to the mayor's letter, but it is the answer we got," said Lakusta. He will go to Washington to argue the case.

Lakusta said he did not regard the ICC's decision to hear oral arguments on the railroad's objections to the examiner's findings as constituting a setback to the city's fight for restored rail service—although it does mean further delay.

He said it appeared the ICC "wishes to demonstrate that it is offering the Southern Pacific every opportunity to prove its case."

He pointed out that in the case of the Sausalito branch line, which the railroad also sought to abandon, the ICC over-ruled an examiner's findings in favor of the railroad's petition, then turned down Southern Pacific's application for re-argument.

Tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, Grader is scheduled to address a public meeting and is expected to stress conservation.

San Jose Trustee To Be Sworn In

James Swenson of 424 Alameda de la Loma, newly appointed member of the San Jose Elementary School District board, will be sworn in at the board meeting at 8 o'clock in the school administration building.

Swenson was named to fill the unexpired term of Robert Allen, who resigned.

The board will hear a report on the building program from the school architects, and consider changing the meeting dates from the second and fourth Mondays to the first and third Mondays of each month.

Memorial Services Set By Hub Legion

A post everlasting service will be held by San Anselmo American Legion Post No. 179 today for five members, including County Auditor Leon A. DeLisle, who died last year. The other members are Carl J. Backman, William J. Freshman, Ernest J. Borrachia and Herbert William Mueller. The service will be held at 8 p.m. at the Log Cabin.

The library at the Air Force Academy in Colorado covers more than 78,000 square feet and holds more than 130,000 volumes.

Unrelated Collisions Injure Two

Two persons suffered minor injuries in two unrelated automobile collisions Saturday afternoon both involving failure to yield right-of-way.

Driving west on the Shoreline Highway one-third of a mile west of its intersection with Highway 101, Eddie Lee Clay, San Francisco laborer, made a left turn in front of an eastbound car driven by V. H. Montgomery of 160 Lower Via Casitas, San Rafael.

Montgomery's car struck the Clay vehicle and Beulah Green of 99 Cole Drive, Marin City, riding with Clay, suffered bruises of the right hip and leg for which she was treated at San Rafael General Hospital. The California Highway Patrol cited Clay on a charge of failing to yield right-of-way.

John W. Kane, Richmond shoestore owner, was driving east across Highway 101 to the Black Point cut-off at 6:20 p.m. as A/1c Paul E. Karr of Vallejo, with the air force's 78th Transport Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, entered 101 from the cut-off.

The cars collided glancingly and Malley B. McNeely of Richmond, riding with Kane, was later checked at Novato General Hospital for pains in his left shoulder and legs. The patrol cited Karr, alleging failure to yield right-of-way.

ting a maximum rate at $219 per month under the state's Medical Assistance For Aged program.

Marin's welfare director, Betty L. Presley, told the Marin County Board of Supervisors last week that the state order would disrupt aid to more than 100 Marin aged whose care is paid for at $350 per month in local nursing homes. Miss Presley said only five beds are available in Marin at the $219 rate.

Bagley's bill is an emergency measure which would take effect immediately on passage and signature by the governor. However, under state law no bill can be considered until 30 days after its introduction, so first hearings on the bill can not be before mid-February.

Bagley also has called a meeting tomorrow or Wednesday of representatives of the County Boards of Supervisors Assn., the Public Health League, banks and savings and loans officials interested in nursing homes, to discuss the situation.

STATE

the tax bill has been carefully tailored in an effort to meet anticipated opposition from congressional conservatives.

Besides calling for gradual rate cuts, to lessen the adverse impact on federal finances, Kennedy advanced two proposals that would aim in the same direction:

1. The enactment of tax reforms recouping 3.5 billion dollars of the revenues that would be lost through lower rates. Reforms would begin going into effect next year.

2. A plan to gradually speed quarterly tax payments by large corporations in order to boost revenues by 1.5 billion dollars without changing corporate tax liabilities.

Kennedy also emphasized a desire for haste in congressional consideration of tax legislation.

"Now is the time to act," he said. "We cannot afford to be timid or slow. For this is the most urgent task confronting the Congress in 1963."

The president did not specify any particular date on which he believes the initial rate cut should take effect. He merely said the first reductions should come this year.

Neither did he indicate the first-year impact on the federal budget.

Kennedy's new budget, for the 1964 fiscal year starting July 1, will go to Congress Thursday. It is expected to call for spending approaching 99 billion dollars.

In one of his few references to the budget, the president said it will allow for "needed rises in defense, space and fixed interest charges." But he said it will hold "total expenditures for all other purposes below this year's level."

To do this, Kennedy said, he will call for "the reduction or postponement of many desirable programs," plus payroll and other economies.

These were among other highlights of the message:

The state of the Union is good; "the recession is behind us."

The state of the world is improving; "steady progress has been made in building a world of order."

"But we cannot be satisfied to rest here. This is the side of the hill, not the top. The mere absence of war is not peace. The mere absence of recession is not growth. We have made a beginning—but we have only begun."

At home, Kennedy wants aid to education; help for unemployed youths; an expanded health program; strengthened guarantees of voting rights; increased competition and decreased regulation in transportation; a local mass transit program; a new farm program; more parks and recreation areas.

Abroad, Kennedy seeks a lowering of trade curbs; an expanded Peace Corps; "an increasingly intimate North Atlantic Treaty Organization" with its own nuclear force and stronger conventional arms; a vigorous Alliance for Progress in Latin America; and a continuing foreign aid program which he said "contributed to the fact that not a single one of the nearly 50 U.N. members to gain independence since World War II has succumbed to Communist control."

Most Grid Coaches Cheer Return Of Free Sub Rule

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

The country's college football coaches tossed away their scorecards today, verbally approved the newly adopted free substitution rule as "good for the game" and indicated they now have enough room to manipulate their forces despite a couple of annoying strings.

There was no hue and cry from the opposition replying to an Associated Press survey —only a lone determined voice dissenting. "It's a tremendous step backward," said Ralph Jordan of Auburn. "I had a feeling when Gen. Bob Neyland passed on something like this would take place."

Neyland was strongly opposed to platoon football, calling it a "rat race" that robbed the game of its "character building aspects." Others like Holy Cross' Eddie Anderson, the dean of the nation's coaches, have always felt "the more boys who get to play the better the game gets."

The new rule, as adopted by the football rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. in Coronado, Calif., last Saturday, calls for more liberalized substitution. There are certain restrictions, however. Completely free substitution will be permitted any time the clock stops and on all plays in a series except fourth down and when the ball changes hands. In each of the restrictive cases, only two men can be sent in.

"I've always liked two-platoon football," said Army's Paul Dietzel, the inventor and prime developer of the three-platoon system. "I think it's better—technically and for the boys."

Pitt's John Michelosen said, "It will alleviate the problem of always trying to keep track of the subs on the sidelines. Now the coach has more time to concentrate on the game."

"You can't imagine," said Vanderbilt's Jack Green, "how much thought coaches have been giving to substitution instead of strategy."

"I think free substitution will bring better football to the colleges," said Baylor's John Bridgers. "I've been for free substitution ever since they took it away from us," said Earle Edwards of North Carolina State. VMI's John McKenna said, "The old rule was supposed to equalize the haves and have-nots and at first we liked it because we were short-handed. But each year they liberalized the rules a bit and pretty soon the whole idea was negated."

SIDELINES

Grid Season Finally Over; Other Sports Move Into The Spotlight

Farewell to Football Day was celebrated in sunny Southern California yesterday, and for sectional die-hards, it was a toss-up. The Eastern Conference of the NFL came up a winner, 30 to 20, while the West All-Stars copped the AFL finale, 21 to 14.

Once again, the big winner was television and it ubiquitous sponsors. To prevent any overlap of time, the AFL game from San Diego started in the late morning, with the Los Angeles spectacular in the prime afternoon spot. If this keeps up you can expect the networks to take over the scheduling of all sports any day now.

RANDOL

Nevertheless, there was some pretty good football played in both games. With league pressure off and a spirit of camaraderie prevailing, the performers were as loose as a goose and gave every play the old college try.

IF ANYTHING, the Western Conference NFL stars were a little too loose. Six fumbles proved the margin of difference. Not one to look a gift horse in the mouth, Old Felks Y. A. Tittle got some measure of revenge on a team that was studded with players from Green Bay.

There is no doubt that the illness of the Great One, Jim Taylor of the Packers, evened the game. J. D. Smith of the 49ers did his best, but he is no Taylor. The defensive line of the East handled everything that came its way and actually forced most of the miscues that eventually won the game.

THE ANNUAL golfing tour is headed this way, starting with the Crosby Clambake next weekend on the Monterey Peninsula, and followed by the Lucky International in San Francisco. With Arnold Palmer and Gary Player back in the groove, the galleries should be larger than ever.

The pro basketball Warriors are back in S.F. tonight to meet the New York Knicks, ready to go all out to break their losing streak. The Warriors have played it tough meeting the Boston Celtics and the L.A. Lakers one after the other, but they have looked good even while losing. The games are just too long right now, as the Warriors fire and fall back for lack of a great defense.

THE ICE HOCKEY Seals are going no place, fast, but this is a sport that is just getting its foot in the door around these parts. It is inevitable that big league hockey is just around the corner. Once you get hooked by this rough, fast game, you're a goner.

So relax, Mom. The rain can run over the eves just as easily as it can go down the spout, and the kids can watch the other TV set while Dad roots it up in the parlor.

There was no hue and cry from the opposition replying to an Associated Press survey —only a lone determined voice dissenting. "It's a tremendous step backward," said Ralph Jordan of Auburn. "I had a feeling when Gen. Bob Neyland passed on something like this would take place."

Neyland was strongly opposed to platoon football, calling it a "rat race" that robbed the game of its "character building aspects." Others like Holy Cross' Eddie Anderson, the dean of the nation's coaches, have always felt "the more boys who get to play the better the game gets."

The new rule, as adopted by the football rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. in Coronado, Calif., last Saturday, calls for more liberalized substitution. There are certain restrictions, however. Completely free substitution will be permitted any time the clock stops and on all plays in a series except fourth down and when the ball changes hands. In each of the restrictive cases, only two men can be sent in.

"I've always liked two-platoon football," said Army's Paul Dietzel, the inventor and prime developer of the three-platoon system. "I think it's better—technically and for the boys."

Pitt's John Michelosen said, "It will alleviate the problem of always trying to keep track of the subs on the sidelines. Now the coach has more time to concentrate on the game."

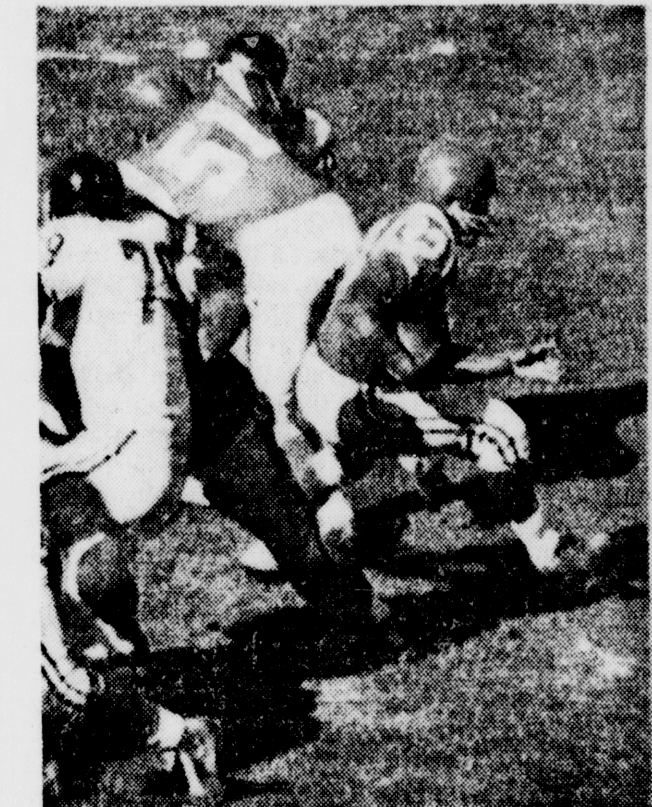

"You can't imagine," said Vanderbilt's Jack Green, "how much thought coaches have been giving to substitution instead of strategy."

"I think free substitution will bring better football to the colleges," said Baylor's John Bridgers. "I've been for free substitution ever since they took it away from us," said Earle Edwards of North Carolina State. VMI's John McKenna said, "The old rule was supposed to equalize the haves and have-nots and at first we liked it because we were short-handed. But each year they liberalized the rules a bit and pretty soon the whole idea was negated."

Florida Tennis Champ WINTER PARK, Fla. (AP)—Miguel Olivera of Ecuador won the Florida State tennis championship yesterday by defeating his Davis Cup mate Eduardo Zuleta 6-3, 6-3, 4-5, 6-2.

AFL Game Won By The West

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Old pro Frank Tripucka came off the bench yesterday and passed the West team to a 21-14 victory in the second annual American Football League All-Star clash—then said it was his final game.

The 35-year-old quarterback relieved Len Dawson of Dallas in the final quarter with the score 14-14. He cranked up the faltering West players and guided them 89 yards in seven plays to the winning touchdown.

The score was set up on a 49-yard toss to Tripucka's Denver Bronco teammate Lionel Taylor. The same Tripucka-Taylor combination worked on a 20-yarder two plays later for the touchdown.

A crowd of more than 27,000 fans at Balboa Stadium watching the West jump off to a 14-0 half-time lead.

West scores came on a 64-yard run by Curtis McClinton of Dallas and an 11-yard pass play from Dawson to San Diego and Dave Kocourek.

Eastern Stars Clout West In NFL's Comedy Of Errors

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Allie Sherman finally has a victory today over Vince Lombardi, his old New York buddy, even if it took one of Jim Brown's finest days, five fumbles, two dropped touchdown passes and a field goal by a guy with the shakes.

Sherman, the young scholarly coach of the New York Giants, got his revenge yesterday in the Eastern Conference's 30-20 victory over Lombardi's Western Conference stars in the 13th National Football League Pro Bowl All-Star game.

Sherman called it "a great team victory and a well played game under the circumstances." Lombardi, like Sherman a Giant assistant before starting his championship reign at Green Bay, called it a "comedy of errors."

Most of the 61,374 who watched the sloppy, but exciting struggle at the Coliseum under sunny skies and 60-degree temperatures probably would agree the answer was somewhere in the middle.

On the positive side, the East had the brilliant running of Cleveland's Brown, who proved he's just as good as ever by carrying 17 times for a record 141 yards, scoring two touchdowns on a 50-yard gallop and a one-yard power plunge and setting up a third score with a 33-yard burst through three or four would-be tacklers.

CLUTCH PASS

There was the clutch 19-yard touchdown pass from Y. A. Tittle to Pres Carpenter that pulled the East into a 20-20 tie early in the fourth quarter after it blew a two-touchdown lead, and the field goal by flu victim Lou Michaels that snapped the tie. And there was the tremendous defensive play of Gene "Big Daddy" Lipscomb and Jim Katcavage.

But that side of the East's first victory over the West in four years and Sherman's first over Lombardi in six tries since he became New York coach tended to be lost in the shuffle of fumbles by Abe Woodson of San Francisco that cost two touchdowns, a bobble by Johnny Unitas that led to Michaels' field goal, and sure touchdown passes dropped by Gail Cogdill and Ron Kramer of the West.

"It was a comedy of errors," insisted Lombardi. "You can't win ball games on mistakes. I mean when you drop the ball three times in the open, twice when it means sure scores, then you are making mistakes."

"We just handed it to them in the fourth quarter," echoed Unitas, whose passing—including a record 87-yard completion to Cogdill—had rallied the West into the lead on a 17-point third period burst.

KEY PLAY

The key play came with six minutes left, the score tied, and Unitas back to pass. He was hit by Lipscomb and Katcavage, dropped the ball, and Big Daddy plopped his 6-foot-8, 290-pound frame on the football on the West 25.

Michaels, so wobbly that Sherman was reluctant to let him play, kicked a 27-yard field goal three plays later.

On the kickoff, Woodson jiggerbugged looking for an opening as he headed up field. He ran smack into Cleveland's Galen Fiss, who separated him from the ball with a ferocious tackle. Dallas' Don Bishop picked it up and raced 20 yards for the clinching touchdown.

Happiest man was Bishop, who received the game ball while Brown was named the outstanding player for the second straight year and Lipscomb was chosen the top lineman.

Bishop had an uncomplicated explanation of his touchdown run.

"Somebody hit him and I just picked up the ball and somebody yelled run," he said. "So I did."

Earning the victory was Jerry Walters, a righthander in the Cleveland Indians' farm chain, who scattered six hits while striking out six Longshoremen batters.

Builders Win 11th Straight Game, 7-1

The Billings-Hutchison Builders were still tied for the top spot in the Alameda Winter League today after their 11th victory in a row yesterday over the San Francisco Longshoremen, 7-1, in San Anselmo's Memorial Park.

The Builder baseballers were held scoreless for the first three innings but their big bats came alive in the fourth frame. The Marin team scored four runs on a single by Dick Spackman, a walk to Larry Smoot, a double by Ernie Demattei, a single by Don Lauters, and a triple by Bill Gallagher.

The hit parade continued as the Builders collected a total of 12 hits. They were led by Gallagher with a triple, double and single; Lauters with three singles, Ron Blum with a double and a single and Spackman with a single and a double.

Earning the victory was Jerry Walters, a righthander in the Cleveland Indians' farm chain, who scattered six hits while striking out six Longshoremen batters.

Shasta scored a point on a free toss, but the two lay-ins by Neumann gave the Tars enough for a 43-43 tie, sending the game into a five-minute overtime period.

The game was close throughout as the lead changed hands several times. Shasta carried a one-point halftime lead of 21-20.

Shortly after the overtime period started, Neumann was fouled and made one of two free throws, sending the Tars in front. Randy Petrini followed with a short jump shot and Charlie Bullock pushed in a free toss, giving the Tars a 47-43 lead.

WAITING GAME

Shasta found the range for a bucket but the Tars shot right back with Pete Bardea scoring on a tip-in, giving Marin a 49-45 advantage. Then the Mariners played a waiting game and scored the rest of their points from the free throw line.

Bullock was high point man for the Tars, scoring 21 points. Rebounding for the Mariners was led by Petrini, Jim Wylie and Neumann, each snagging seven from the boards.

The Tars will get a rest during final examinations, resuming action Jan. 25 when they take on the college alumni team in the Redwood High School gym. Next league game will be Feb. 1 against Yuba College in Marysville.

Scoring: Shasta — Osborne, 3-1-7; Cecil, 5-7-17; Bernum, 2-1-5; Hagstrom, 5-1-11; Thompson, 3-2-8.

Marin Cagers Win In Overtime, 53-48

The College of Marin Tars won their second basketball game in a smany nighs when they edged Shasta College 53-48 in overtime Saturday night in the Redwood High School gym.

The victory gave the Tars a 2-0 record in the Golden Valley Conference. College of Marin whipped Siskiyou College 90-71 Friday night.

Marin was trailing by three points with only one and one-half minutes remaining in the regulation time when Dave Neumann stole the ball twice and scored a pair of buckets, showing a fine bit of defensive play.

Shasta scored a point on a free toss, but the two lay-ins by Neumann gave the Tars enough for a 43-43 tie, sending the game into a five-minute overtime period.

Dodgers' Wills Voted Athlete Of The Year

NEW YORK (AP)—If all the awards received by Maury Wills this fall were lined up side by side they probably would match the 104 bases the fleet-footed Los Angeles star stole last season.

The latest—and most important—to Wills—is the Athlete of the Year for 1962 award which was voted him by a wide margin Saturday in the annual Associated Press poll.

"I've received many awards," said Wills today, "but this is perhaps the daddy of 'em all. I'm real happy about the honor."

"Everyone has been wonderful to me," said Wills. My main aim from now on is to try and make myself worthy of all these honors. I have been trying to and hope I can pay back all these nice people."

Wills captured 72 first place votes and 338 points on a 3-2-1 basis from a national panel of 302 sports writers and sportscasters who participated in the poll.

Golfer Jack Nicklaus was second with 38 first place votes and 208 points. Y. A. Tittle of the New York Football Giants, golfer Arnold Palmer, Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers, and quarterback Terry Baker of Oregon State rounded out the first six.

The runaway victory for Wills was fitting. He captured the national fancy as he passed Bob Beacher's National League record of 80 stolen bases in August and closed in on Ty Cobb's major league mark of 96 a month later. He finally passed Cobb on Sept. 17, reached the 100 mark the last week of the regular season and added four more in the three-game playoff with the Giants to finish with 104 stolen bases in 165 games.

WHL Seals May Ask For NHL Franchise In June

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco Seals president Coleman Hall says that his Western Hockey League team may bid for a National Hockey League franchise this June.

Hall said yesterday that both San Francisco and Los Angeles have proved to be "good hockey towns from the standpoint of attendance and facilities." He said Los Angeles "would get a major league franchise at the same time we would."

He said San Francisco's application for a National League franchise could come at the NHL board of governors meeting in Montreal in June.

Seals Lose To Portland Amid Boos

"I tried everything to get a fire going under them but it was no use," lamented San Francisco Seal coach Bud Poile after his squad lost 5-2 to the Portland Buckaroos yesterday in the Cow Palace.

"I mixed up the lines, told them to get into a fight, anything. But nothing worked," Poile said.

At stake was undisputed possession of second place in the Western Division of the Western Hockey League, now shared with idle Los Angeles. Each has 33 points, 15 less than the leading Buckaroos.

The disappointment of Poile was accentuated by the memory of Saturday night's 3-2 overtime victory over Portland. Ed Panagabko scored the winning goal in the sudden-death period with more than seven minutes gone.

It was a different story yesterday afternoon as the Seals seemed to have left their game on the ice Saturday. Fans booed the leathering play as Portland jumped to a quick 3-0 lead and coasted in the rest of the way.

and general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, has been attending Western Hockey League games recently. He was reportedly doing spade work in San Francisco's behalf with the NHL.

Indians Face Huskies In Big 6 Crucial

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

Basketball players on many Pacific Coast campuses take their shots at final examinations this week instead of backboards and rims.

But Stanford and Washington, the two leading teams in the tight Big Six race, meet for a pair of weekend games at Stanford. The outcome either will give the rest of the conference squads one team to catch, or leave things in the tangle they are now.

The even more snarled West Coast Athletic Conference won't be unraveled for another week since the three undefeated schools have scheduled final exams.

Washington lost to Southern California, 64-61, Friday night in Los Angeles but came back Saturday for a 62-61 victory over the Trojans that left the Huskies at 3-1 for league play.

Stanford, winner of its only conference encounter, learned a few lessons Friday night that it applied correctly Saturday against the visiting independent Oregon State Beavers.

Terry Baker, the All-American football quarterback, poured through 25 points Friday for a 65-58 Beaver win. The Indians were watching 7-foot center Mel Counts and held him to 10 points.

INDIANS ROMP

Saturday, Counts scored 20, but Baker managed only 11. The Indians romped in, 96-69, with their own All-America candidate, Tom Dose, scoring 29 points.

It was the first loss in eight starts for the Beavers since Baker rejoined the team after the football season. Oregon State plays Gonzaga of Washington next Saturday night.

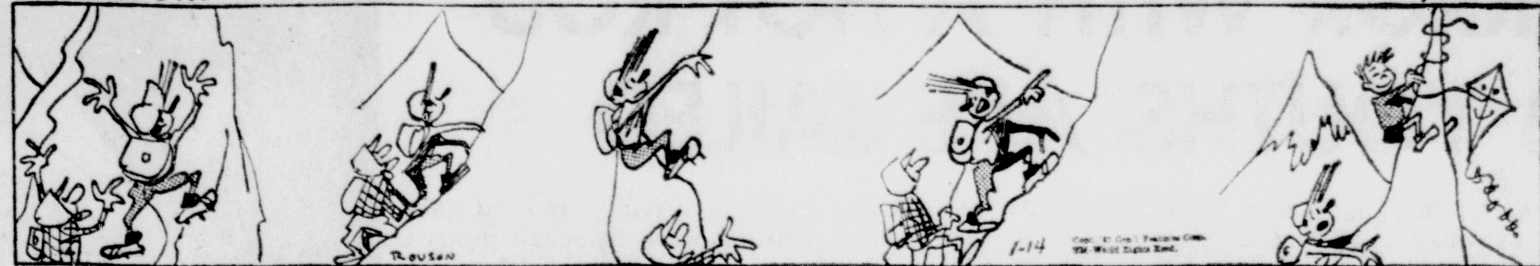

UCLA, still smarting from two league opening losses to Washington the previous weekend, evened California's conference record at 2-2 with a 63-58 victory in Santa Monica Saturday.

In WCAC Saturday action, the University of San Francisco defeated the University of the Pacific, 64-61, and San Jose State whipped Loyola of Los Angeles, 62-52.

USF and Santa Clara each have 3-0 conference marks. St. Mary's is undefeated in two league contests, while San Jose stays just behind with a 2-1 record.

All WCAC teams are idle this week except Pepperdine, which travels to Honolulu for three games against the University of Hawaii. Pepperdine defeated Hawaii for a second time Saturday in Los Angeles, 93-61.

Player's Pressure Putt Wins Title; Crosby Tourney Starts On Thursday

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—If confidence counts, Gary Player, the amiable South African, is in for a big year.

"I came here to win," said Player after he had completed his first round in the $25,000 San Diego Open.

Yesterday Gary knocked in an 18-foot pressure putt from off the edge of the green on the 72nd and last hole to win the tournament by one stroke from lean Tony Lema.

Lema, the hot man on the tour these days, now has won four tournaments and finished second in three out of the last 12 he has played.

"I didn't realize anyone was so close until I got to the 18th green," said Player. "Then I found out I had to sink that putt to win. I knew I had better win now because I haven't been so good in playoffs. In fact, I've been in eight playoffs and lost every one."

Player finished the round with a one-under-par 70; a 270 for the 72 holes—which is 12 under par for the distance. He collected $3,500 for first place to add to the $3,800 he got for finishing in a tie for second behind Arnold Palmer in the Los Angeles Open.

Player had been engaged in a head-and-head, down-the-stretch duel with Billy Casper when he found out that Lema really was the man to beat.

Player and Casper were in the same threesome. The South African health fadist had started the day with a 200 score. Casper was 201, along with Miller Barber. Barber faded out of the picture early.

But Casper, despite an illness, stayed in there and slugged it out until the 15th and 16th holes, where he ran into a pair of fives to drop two strokes off the pace.

Meanwhile, Lema, the reformed playboy, had finished early with a fine 67 to go with his 204 and he sat in the press room to sweat out the finish by Player and Casper.

But when Player tanked the putt from a foot off the edge of the green Tony tossed his hands in the air in disgust and left. At that, he picked up $2,300 for second place—which is a pretty fair week's work.

Casper finished in a tie with Charley Sifford for third place with 272 after a 71. Julius Boros had a 69, and was all alone at 273 for $1,300; and Barber, closing with a sad 73, had a 724 for $1,200.

Next in line came young Bob McCallister, who finished with a fine 65; and Dan Skies, Atlanta attorney, who had a 66, for 176 and $925.

It's on to Pebble Beach and the Bing Crosby tournament starting on Thursday.

STANFORD GRID COACH STILL A QUESTION MARK

STANFORD (UPI)—Stanford University athletic director Al Masters says he hopes the suspense will end and a new Stanford football coach will be named this week.

"We certainly hope to have this thing settled by then," Masters said last night.

He would not say how many coaches were in the ring. Leading candidates are believed to be Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma, Navy's Wayne Hardin and John Ralston of Utah State.

Musial, Ump, Series Stars Are Honored

CHICAGO (AP)—Stan Musial, veteran umpire Jocko Conlon, and 1962 World Series players were honored last night by some 1,000 major league baseball men at the 23rd annual "Diamond Dinner."

A moment of silence in memory of the late Rogers Hornsby was observed before presentation of the awards. Hornsby, a member of baseball's Hall of Fame, died Jan. 5 at age 66.

Conlon received the J. Louis Comiskey award for long and meritorious service and Musial, the St. Louis veteran star and a previous winner of the Comiskey Trophy, was presented the William Wrigley Jr. "Comeback of the Year" award.

Tom Tresh of the New York Yankees was named "World Series Hero" by the writers. Pitcher Billy Pierce of the San Francisco Giants was given the Will Harridge award, symbolic of the "Achievement of the Year," for his performance against Los Angeles in the National League playoff.

TERROR WITH A HOT ROD —2 YOUTHS ARE JAILED

Two San Rafael youths were jailed Saturday night after they allegedly terrorized 20 children in the East San Rafael apartment house district and threatened to shoot 20 men who barricaded Canal Street with their automobiles.

One of the 20, Leonard Michael Cohen, 31, of 55 Canal Street, was slightly injured when the youths' car swerved around the barricade and across a lawn, said Patrolmen Phillip D. Green and Jack Loane of San Rafael police.

Jailed on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon (a car), reckless driving, and hit-run driving with personal injury were Jeffery Michael Paganini, 18, of 60 Fairfax Street, and Michael Lee Kennedy, 19, of 137 Canal Street.

Police were called at 5:33 p.m. by residents who said two youths in an auto were "hot-rodding up and down Canal Street" and had driven directly at 10 young children playing at the dead-end of the street.

The hot-rodders swerved in the nick of time and none of the children was hurt. But alarmed residents quickly drove eight cars and a truck into the street to barricade it.

Officers Green and Loane arrived at the scene four minutes later to find the barricade still there but the hot-rodders vanished.

About 20 men were clustered around the cars and truck. They told the officers the youths drove up to the barricade, stopped their car, and ordered the men to move out of the way, claiming they had a gun and threatening to shoot.

As the men ducked behind the autos, the pair swerved across the lawn, their car hitting Cohen, the group told Police. Cohen's injuries were minor. He said he would see his own doctor.

While Officer Green was talking with witnesses, Paganini walked up and asked, "What happened?"

"That's the driver!" exclaimed witnesses.

Green arrested Paganini. Kennedy was found nearby a few minutes later and was identified as the second youth in the car. The auto was found in front of Paganini's home.

Paganini and Kennedy were later released on bail of $1,050 each, scheduled to be arraigned in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

Stinson Beach Woman Hit Crossing Street

Auda Bordanaro, 59, of Stinson Beach was treated for a cut left arm and injured thigh Friday at Marin General Hospital after being hit by a car while crossing Tamalpais Drive, west of Willow Lane in Corte Madera at 8:30 a.m.

She was hit in the crosswalk, according to police, by a car driven by Raymond J. Zierolf, 58, of 41 Wiltshire Lane, Larkspur.

TELEPHONE CABLE BREAK MENDED

Divers from a Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. barge yesterday finally found a break in the Marin-San Francisco telephone cable on the bottom of the bay, which was broken Jan. 3 when the Navy aircraft transport Core ran aground. The broken section of the cable, near Fort Baker, was promptly raised and repaired. Here, linemen Iva Perry (left) and Robert Mehegan prepare end of cable prior to splicing job. During the 10 days after the cable break, Marin-San Francisco phone messages had to be routed by way of Vallejo or Richmond.

Felen Stabs Another, Then He Surrenders

A 34-year-old Los Angeles County robber and forger stabbed a 37-year-old San Diego County habitual criminal at San Quentin Prison yesterday and then surrendered, reported Homer Hastings, officer of the day.

Gerald McConnell surrendered to Sgt. L. C. March and said he had stabbed Nolan Keller as result of an altercation over "a homosexual involvement," Hastings reported. He said the inmate surrendered the weapon, which appeared to be a one-quarter-inch welding rod sharpened at one end and with a wooden handle, to Correctional Officer Larry O'Brien.

Keller, stabbed in two places along the spine, was taken to the prison hospital for treatment. He was able to be out of bed today, however, and his condition was termed good.

McConnell was placed in isolation and is scheduled to go before the prison disciplinary committee tomorrow.

The stabbing occurred about 2 p.m. in the lower exercise yard.

McConnell, born in California, is serving five years to life for first degree robbery consecutively with a term of six months to 14 years for a prior conviction for forgery.

Keller, born in Pennsylvania, is serving a life sentence as a habitual criminal—for robbery and burglary in the first degree with four prior felonies.

Two School Districts Want To Quit Library Service

By ALTON S. BOCK

Two school districts in Marin will ask the county board of supervisors tomorrow to let them pull out of the county school library service.

They are the first to make such a request in 30 years.

Novato Unified and Dixie School districts will ask to withdraw from the system. They say the money they contribute each year for supplemental textbooks from a central system can be used instead to buy more books of their own choosing.

School boards of both districts voted last week to withdraw, on recommendation of their superintendents.

They are not dissatisfied with the service, which Perry McDonald has run for 35 years. It is a matter of "economics," Dixie Supt. Dennis B. Willis put it this way:

"When a district reaches the size ours is, we can provide the same service to ourselves. We spent $8,650 this year as our share toward supporting the county service. There's just no point in putting that money at somebody else's disposal."

"Half the money is spent for operating the service, and the other half is spent on books. We figure we can spend $1,000 for operation and all the rest on books. We will get more for our money."

State law requires every school district to put aside $100 for every 35 students toward the purchase of supplemental books.

When the Marin County Library was established in 1927, all school districts in the county, except San Rafael elementary and high school districts, agreed to turn over their money to the library and let it buy the books and distribute them. It was agreed that funds be split evenly between purchase of books and operation of the service.

"We have $56,000 in our current budget," McDonald said. "This is all from the schools and is our entire support."

"The withdrawal of the districts is an indication of a trend toward decentralization. It's not surprising, and as other districts become larger, there will be more withdrawals . . .

"Our service to remaining districts will actually improve. We will be buying fewer books, naturally, but we will be able to give more of them to the other districts."

McDonald spent an average $2.24 for each book bought last year. "The average amount we spend won't go up because of the loss of Dixie and Novato," he said.

SAVE GALLEY RALLY WINDS UP IN FIGHT

The "Save the Galley Rally" at Juanita Musson's ferryboat restaurant in Sausalito jumped too much Saturday night.

The marathon entertainment to raise money for taxes owed of Mrs. Musson's teeth, (2) sent by an unscheduled performance that (1) knocked out one of Miss Musson's teeth, (2) sent a cook to the hospital, and (3) landed two visitors in Marin County Jail.

Participants and witnesses agreed the fist-swinging took place between 6:30 and 7 p.m.

One of Mrs. Musson's teeth was knocked out when she tried to rescue Robert Quayle, 26, a cook, who was being beaten by two visitors, Otis Williams, a bus boy, and James Fortune, a laborer, both 26, of San Francisco, said Deputy Sheriff H. E. Morgan.

Quayle, of 812 Spring Street, Sausalito, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a two-inch cut on his left cheek and a one-inch cut on his chin.

Williams and Fortune were booked by Deputy Morgan on suspicion of assault, battery and assault with a deadly weapon (which was not immediately found). They were held in Marin County Jail in lieu of $1,050 bail each for arraignment in Marin Municipal Court late today.

Deputy Morgan said he was hailed at 6:58 p.m. at the Marin City Underpass by Mrs. Musson and comedian John Moore, of 31 Bulkeley Avenue, Sausalito, who has been one of the entertainers appearing at the Galley to help raise the tax money. They told Morgan someone knifed a Galley employee and then fled to C-28, Apt. 217, Marin City.

Mrs. Musson still owes about $900 in taxes to the federal government and $3,000 to the state. Friends have been staging nightly "rallies" at her restaurant to raise the money.

Morgan, Mrs. Musson and Moore found Williams in the front room at that address with blood on the front of his T-shirt. Fortune was in a back bedroom of the same apartment. Mrs. Musson identified them as the men who had attacked her and Quayle.

The trouble started, said Moore, when Williams hit cook's helper Frank Wharton, 52.

SHOPLIFT ARRESTS

Boy Toting Battery Arouses Suspicion

Three Novato boys were arrested for shoplifting Saturday because a San Rafael resident notified police of a suspicious circumstance.

The resident whose tip led to the arrest, Leonard Michael Cohen, 31, of 55 Canal Street, was hit by a car less than an hour later when two other youths allegedly terrorized his East San Rafael neighborhood.

Shortly before 5 p.m., Cohen reported to Police Sgt. Carl Selby and Patrolman Charles Hickey that he had just seen three boys carrying an auto battery into the Greyhound Bus Depot. He thought the circumstance suspicious.

His call followed by only a few minutes one from Henry Anthony Keller, proprietor of Keller's Men's Store at Fourth Street and Lincoln Avenue, who said three boys had stolen a woolen shirt and dashed out of the store.

Selby and Hickey went to the bus station. Aboard a bus about to leave for Novato, they found a 14-year-old boy who had, not only the sport shirt stolen from Keller's, but a sports shirt stolen from Marcus Men's Shop at 1130 Fourth Street, another stolen from Tom McGruder's, Fourth Street and Lootens Place, a dress shirt and two sweaters stolen from Macy's, and the battery—which proved to have been stolen from National Auto Parks Co., 809 Lincoln Avenue. Police valued the entire loot at $60.83.

Sergeant Selby said the 14-year-old implicated two friends, 14 and 15, who also live in Novato. All three were cited to appear with their parents before probation officers.

Board Of Supervisors Due Fire Protection Aid Report

A report on state recommendations for increased state aid in fire protection in Marin County will be heard by the county board of supervisors tomorrow.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom and Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows attended a meeting last Wednesday of the State Board of Forestry at which state contracts for fire protection services in forest, watershed and grazing lands were discussed.

Barrow will report the proposals to the supervisors at their meeting which opens at 9 a.m.

Matters related to the new Civic Center are still coming before the board. Included among them tomorrow will be more requests for use of the center by public organizations, a complaint from a Santa Venetia resident about traffic congestion on North San Pedro Road near the Civic Center, requests for more furniture in offices of the county counsel and veterans service officer, and recommendations for fairgrounds site development from the County Fair Advisory Committee.

Valerie Good Becomes Bride At Evening Ceremony In Ross

In a candlelight ceremony on Saturday evening at St. John's Church in Ross, Jane Valerie Good of Kentfield became the bride of Norman Bruce Ciampi of San Rafael.

The Rev. Harold E. Hallett officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howard Good of Kentfield.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown which recalled memories of three generations. She wore the Worth wedding gown that was made for her great-grandmother, Mrs. John D. Ashton of New York. In 1915 it was worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Vance Lines also in New York and in 1933, it was worn by her mother when she became the bride of Lawrence Howard Good in Pasadena. In Empire style, the gown is made of ivory slipper satin and velvet with a long peacock train.

As was the case in the three preceding generations, 20 boys of the vested choir sang the processional.

MRS. R. LORNE RYAN of Minneapolis, Minn., was matron of honor, and bridesmaids, Stannie Good of Atherton; Carol Ouchi of Honolulu; Peggy Young of Mexico City; Paula McArdle of Fairfax, and Joy Ivanovich of Ross were full length azalea pink peau de soie gowns.

Lisa Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Craig of Greenbrae and the bride's cousin, was flower girl.

Fords Entertain Basil Frobishers

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ford entertained at a dinner party in their Mill Valley home Wednesday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Basil Frobisher of San Mateo.

Mrs. Frobisher, who was born and trained in Russia as a ballet dancer and continued her training in this country, was known professionally for many years as Olga Ziceva. She is now a well known ballet instructor whose methods of teaching have been widely adopted in ballet schools in this country.

Rosa acted as best man. Ushering guests to their seats were the bride's brothers, Tony and David Good of Kentfield; Norman Paterson of San Rafael; Lance Fuller of Menlo Park; John Rinehart of San Jose, and Chester Robertson of Anchorage, Alaska.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Meadow Club.

THE BRIDE, who is also the sister of Stuart Good of Kentfield, was graduated from the Katharine Branson School in Ross and Mills College in Oakland. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Good and Mrs. Vance Lines of Pasadena and the late Mr. Lines.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ciampi of San Rafael, was graduated from San Rafael Military Academy and the University of the Pacific, where he was affiliated with Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity. The late Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson of Mill Valley and the late Mr. and Mrs. Guido Ciampi are his grandparents.

Honolulu was the destination of their wedding trip.

The dinner will be given at the Greenbrae home of Mrs. W. P. Merritt. Other members of the professional organization for teachers assisting Mrs. Merritt will be Mesdames Kenneth Hickel and Isabel Cartwright and Miss Leona Kurlie.

Following dinner, the program will consist of a discussion of education in the home countries of guests of honor, and recipes for the dishes served will be exchanged.

The guests are Mrs. Sara Julia Caldwell de Iturroiz of Argentina; Misses Sonhilda Lucena de Araujo, Dione de Araujo Fontes and Maria Nivea de Carvalho Pereira of Brazil; Miss Blanca Albina Berdugo Motto of El Salvador; Mrs. Aytan Birinci of Turkey; and Miss Delia Olmos of Uruguay.

Hanging Shoe Bag Is Holder For Thread, Scissors, Pins

By EUNICE FARMER

"I hang a shoe bag inside the closet door of my sewing room to hold my sewing necessities. In separate pockets I put thread, scissors, containers for pins and buttons and also my darning."

"The pockets are wonderful for holding socks and underwear that need to be mended. They are always at my finger tips and I can see at a glance what needs mending and repairing. Everyone in the family knows where to find these items, also, and has a place to return them."

This splendid suggestion comes from Mrs. Helen L. Mills, Ft. Worth, Tex., who has been awarded the tailor trix press board for the best idea of the week.

"I have mastered the art of putting a slide fastener in skirts, but can't seem to manage at the center back without the fastener itself showing. How can I do this job neatly?"
—Mrs. R.H.

Dear Mrs. R.H.:

I think you will find that most of the fastener applications at the center back of a garment are done the same way they are on skirts. In other words, they will have a lapped seam effect which will completely hide the fastener.

If you get confused about the way the seam should lie, pretend it is a side fastener and would simply be moved to the center back without changing direction.

"I use quite a bit of light colored wool and find that rust spots appear on the pins and consequently leave a mark on the material. What would cause the rust on the pins which I keep closed up in a box?"

Mrs. E.K.

Dear Mrs. E.K.:

You are probably using the polished steel pins which most of us use. These are very satisfactory in most instances. If there is excessive moisture in the air or if your garment has been put away for any length of time with the pins in the fabric, there is a chance of rust forming on the pins.

If you intend keeping the garment pinned for a long period of time, I would suggest you find brass pins (which are a little more costly) but won't rust.

Tweezers: "My biggest helper in my sewing basket is a sharp eye-brow tweezer. It is wonderful for pulling threads, holding material in places that are difficult to get to with your fingers, and tying short threads. It's almost like having a third hand."—Mrs. J.B.

"I made a two piece suit last winter but have gained weight since then and now the skirt is too tight in front and back. I have some material left but not enough to make a new skirt and would appreciate any suggestions you can give me."
—Mrs. J.A.

Dear Mrs. J.A.:

I am hoping you have some fabric left that is the same length as your skirt, as well as on the lengthwise grain. You can rip the skirt apart and recut it by using a 6-gore skirt. The piece of fabric you have left could be used to cut the center back and center front panel. You could cut the side panels from your original skirt.

You could also raise the skirt at the waistline about 5 inches. This will probably give you enough room at the waist and hips. Make a fold at the lower edge of the skirt by stitching approximately 1 to 2 inches above the original hem. Another piece of fabric can be added to the lower edge of the skirt and the piecing will not show because of the deep fold. This would give your skirt the new tunic look which is so popular this year. Good luck!

Please send your suggestions (new and old) to Sew Simple, in care of the Independent Journal.

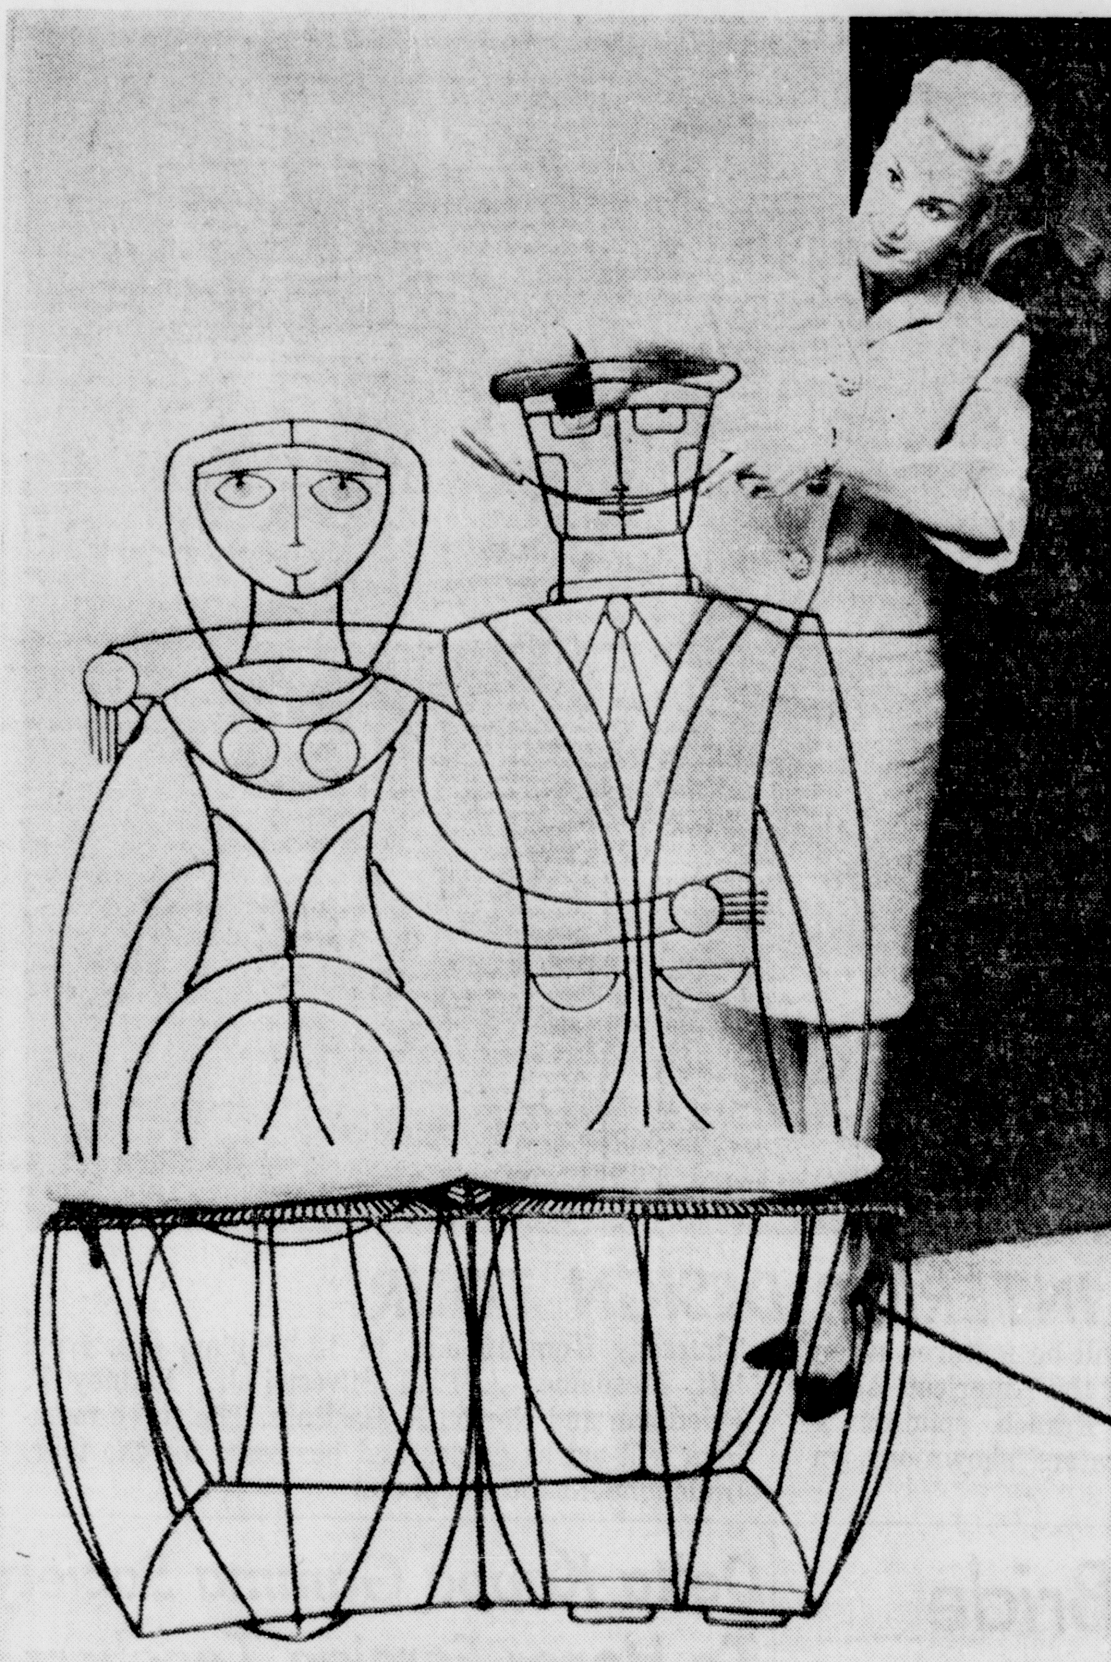

If you would like a booklet answering the 20 most frequently asked questions about sewing, send 25 cents and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request to Eunice Farmer, Independent Journal.

Foot Size Chart

Keeping pace with children's foot growth is simplified with a new foot size check chart. The chart is put out by the National Foot Health Council, Rockland Mass. The council chairman, Dr. Joseph Lelyveld, said the chart measures both full and half sizes from early infancy to full growth and helps parents keep children shod in proper sizes of socks and shoes. Improper sizing is a leading cause of childhood foot ills, said Lelyveld.

Neutral Beads

Soft combinations of a neutral shade with spring pastels is the new look in beads featured at the United Jewelry show in Providence, R.I. Samples: black with ivory; bone with green. A knit look in beads is achieved by combining tiny bead chain with linked metal. The result: a collar of beads so flexible it can be crumpled in the hand.

Today is Monday, Jan. 14, the 14th day of 1963 with 351 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Venus.

The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1943, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Prime Minister Winston Churchill began a 10-day conference in Morocco to plan Allied offensives aimed at the "unconditional surrender" of the Axis powers.

In 1962, scores were slain in a terror wave which swept Algeria.

A thought for the day—English essayist William Hazlitt said: "No young man believes he should ever die."

Since I was only 11 years old at the time, I opened the seven of diamonds from the West hand. Today, I would probably open the five.

RUFF

My father didn't know whether I had started with two or with three diamonds. If he tried to give me a diamond ruff, declarer would make the contract.

He solved his problem by winning the first trick with the ace of diamonds instead of the king. That led me to believe that South had the king of diamonds.

I eventually found out who had the king of diamonds, but I couldn't see at first why my own father would want to conceal the truth from me.

Actually, he had a good reason, and anybody who has an 11-year-old son can safely pass it on.

RETURN

My father returned the eight of spades at the second trick. I won with the ace of spades and automatically returned a spade.

Father got his ruff and cashed the king of diamonds to defeat the contract.

"Suppose I won the first trick with the king instead of the ace of diamonds," my father began after the hand was finished. "If I then led a spade to your ace, would you return a spade or a diamond?"

ADMIT

I had to admit that I wasn't sure. I might have returned a diamond even though deep thought would clearly indicate a spade return. A diamond return would allow South to make the contract.

"Why should I give you a problem?" my father asked. "I'm older, and I know what's best. I tell you only what you

INCOME TAX FACTS

Shelling Out For Wedding? Maybe Not

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

Was your son or daughter married in 1962? If yes, you may be able to claim him or her as a dependent on your 1962 income tax returns, and they may get the deduction, too. Certain conditions must be met: The newlyweds must not file a joint return for 1962. If they do, then the deduction for you is lost, and there is nothing you can do about it.

P. J. Wikel

If they have already filed a joint return, they can still file amended separate returns if they do so before April 15, 1963. After that date they cannot file separate returns if a joint return was previously filed.

You must have furnished over half the cost of your child's support for 1962, but the child does not have to have lived with you at any time during the year.

Your child's gross income must not have been more than $600 in 1962, unless he or she was a student or was under 19 years old on Dec. 31, 1962, in which case the income test does not apply.

Remember that in California half of what your child's new spouse earns after the wedding is considered income of your child.

If your child meets all the tests for dependency, then you should claim him or her on your tax returns. Then the couple should file separate returns, each claiming his or her own exemption.

In California it does not matter if one spouse had no income, for under community property rules income after marriage can be divided between the two.

This tax saving plan will save you at least $120. Remember that the first and most important thing to do is to make sure that your child does not file a joint return with the new spouse.

Kentfield School Meeting Tonight

Alternate proposals and cost estimates for nine additional classrooms needed by the Kentfield School District will be received by the trustees meeting at 7:45 p.m. today.

The expansion, to accommodate an expected enrollment increase of nearly 400 pupils, does not include current work on the addition to Adaline E. Kent School.

The board will meet in the multi-use room of Greenbrae School. The building projections will be presented by architects William Corlett and Peter Skaer.

Bids for a new school auto will be reviewed. Authorization will be asked to sell the old car, a 1953 Chevrolet, at a high bid of $125, said Supt. Howard C. Harmon.

Humidity warps wood and swells leather, rusts iron and spreads mold, as well as making people tired and tense.

Hub Classrooms To Be Studied

San Anselmo School District trustees will again study plans for addition of four classrooms at Wade Thomas School at a meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Isabel Cook School.

They hope to be able to submit the plans to the State Department of Education for study and approval Feb. 15.

Trustees will also hear a report from University of California librarian Mrs. Mae Durham of Mill Valley on school library development.

Paul Talbot of Sleepy Hollow, a State Division of Highway engineer, will discuss the east-west freeway the state will eventually build across Marin County. No decision on the route has been made, but one possibility is through San Anselmo on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Brown's Press Conference Set

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown's press conference at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow will be the first one at which radio and television representatives will be allowed to film or tape the proceedings.

Previously, the governor held joint conferences for all news media, but taping and filming took place afterwards.

The change was announced earlier, but postponed at the request of newspaper reporters.

"BUT-How Can a Private Citizen Fight the Reds?"

Here's how: by helping to broadcast the unanswerable truths that keep the Communists off balance.

Where? At Communism's weakest spot—Eastern Europe. Here 80,000,000 people still resist Red domination... in Poland, in Czechoslovakia, in Hungary, in Bulgaria, in Romania.

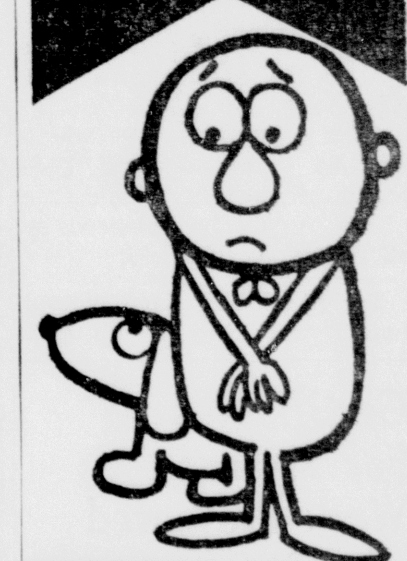

Here many powerful Russian divisions are tied down, unable to leave. You can help keep the pressure on, by supporting Radio Free Europe's daily news and commentary broadcast service to captive people. These messages of truth and hope are counted among our major weapons in the Cold War.

Radio Free Europe is supported by private contributions. It needs your help. Give now—whatever you can.

Stand up and be counted. You'll be proud you did.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Life Insurance Policies To Be Issued In More Simple Forms

Life insurance policies will now be issued in more simplified form and less wordy in context, according to two agents operating in Marin.

Richard A. Secrist of John Hancock Mutual also notes greater flexibility of coverage, higher interest rates on dividends left on deposit, improved settlement option rates and reductions in most retirement annuity costs. Changes were effective beginning Jan. 1.

Franklin T. Weber of Equitable Life Assurance reports improvements in rate structure and policy plans and provisions, 20 per cent fewer words in the contract and policies written in non-technical language.

Both companies have adopted the Commissioners' 1958 Standard Mortality Table, use of which will be required by all companies by 1966.

TAMALPAIS Savings and Loan Assn., Corte Madera, end.

Certificates For Science Work Presented

Certificates for special scientific research work have been presented to three Sir Francis Drake High School students by University Extension, University of California.

Senior Bart Beander and Junior Gordon Nelson were presented certificates for work they have done with Norman Goldstein Jr., member of the Drake faculty who has been conducting studies in instrumentation methods for teaching of physiology and biological sciences.

The project is supported by a national foundation grant and deals with the development of electronic instruments for school use.

Edward Grissell, a 1962 graduate, has worked under direction of Harold F. Madsen, professor of entomology and parasitology.

Heart Attack Talks Planned

A symposium on rehabilitation from heart attacks will be held in the board of supervisors chambers at the Civic Center starting at 9 a.m., Jan. 26. Dr. Gerson Jacobs, president of the Marin County Heart Assn., announced today.

The program and registration forms are available at the offices of the heart association at 2044 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

There will be a morning and afternoon session, ending at 4 p.m., with luncheon served in the Civic Center cafeteria. Seven speakers are scheduled to talk.

Secretary-Manager James W. Barnett said that savings showed a 50-per cent gain over June 30, 1962 figures.

REDWOOD NATIONAL BANK started off its activities in a big way. After the first three days of business, president Byron W. Leydecker reported deposits of 1.1 million dollars from people throughout the county.

WILLIAM A. HILLHOUSE of Sausalito has joined the sales staff of Lewis Realty. He recently returned to the Bay Area after serving as business manager of a Denver advertising agency. Previously he was resident vice president at the San Francisco office of Alexander Film Co. Hillhouse will be based at Lewis Realty's Mill Valley branch.

GORDON W. STRAWBRIDGE and Bernard Moss have merged their respective printing establishments—Marin Printer and Graphic Arts of Marin—into one business with increased facilities, new equipment and larger quarters. They will operate as Graphic Arts of Marin. New address: 3 Gate 5 Road, Sausalito.

SHAUN WILTSHIRE notes the inclusion of an indoor swimming pool and ice skating rink in the plans now being prepared by architect Robert Severin for the 12-acre "convention center" just north of the Marin County Civic Center. Full details will soon be released to the public. Present thinking on a name is Marin International.

HEALTH SERVICE

Bedside Nurses Lighten Family Burdens In Marin

The Marin County Health Department next month will mark the first anniversary of start of a service which has enabled dozens of Marin families to care for ill or severely handicapped relatives at home.

This is part-time bedside nursing service, offered through the public health nursing division of the health department.

As an example of how it works, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, today cited the Gustav Zetterquist family.

Zetterquist spent several months in a hospital with encephalitis and pneumonia. He was left almost totally helpless with Parkinson's disease. He is 62 years old and does not accept too readily the complete dependence forced upon him by his illness.

Eichler, San Rafael Home Win Awards

The Eichler Homes Lucas Valley project and the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Henigan of 1216 Idylberry Drive, San Rafael, have won awards in Parents Magazine's annual Builder's Competition contest.

The Lucas Valley project won a neighborhood planning award. The Henigan residence, designed by Jones and Emmons of Los Angeles, won a national and regional merit award from the magazine.

Zetterquist home in Point Reyes Station three times each week to bathe and care for him and to teach Mrs. Zetterquist and their daughter to care for his needs more easily and efficiently.

Dr. Albrecht pointed also to another example:

Craig Wagner is a teen-ager whose legs were paralyzed from a gunshot wound 10 years ago. In the past he had to be hospitalized periodically for the treatment of pressure sores which developed under his braces. Since the Bedside Nursing Service came into being, he has been successfully treated at home for the same kind of pressure sores he had in the past.

Not only was this home treatment only half as costly in dollars, but he has been able to continue special training to become a radio repairman.

"The encouragement of his family and familiar surroundings cannot be measured in dollars, but this has contributed immeasurably to his recovery from this episode," said Dr. Albrecht.

Bedside nursing is supported by new federal funds and patient fees. The fees are based upon the patient's ability to pay, and in some cases services may be given without charge.

Bedside nursing services must be requested by the patient's physician.

Car, Rock 'n' Roll Club Is Forming

A combination car and rock 'n' roll club is now being formed at Redwood High School, according to Principal Donald Kreps.

"Redwood has various clubs covering all academic fields, and also an extensive athletic program; but there are two things that high school students are interested in that have not been covered: cars and rock 'n' roll," said Kreps. "We are attempting to form a club which will combine the two."

The club, which as of now has no name, will be opened to both boys and girls whether or not they have cars.

HOW TO PLEASE YOUR HOME ECONOMIST

Introduce a lady to a new Cadillac—and wonderful things happen.

For what feminine heart wouldn't skip a beat when the door swings open on motoring's most luxurious and comfortable interiors?

What lady could fail to thrill to the marvelous handling ease of this majestic car?

And how could she resist the magic of her first arrival in this great motor car? For her

Cadillac is a gallant and considerate escort wherever she goes, and even a routine journey becomes a special occasion.

But it is to her practical side that this new 1963 Cadillac makes its deepest appeal.

The car's original cost represents an unusual bargain in view of all a Cadillac provides.

Cadillac's day-in, day-out economy of operation and upkeep . . . and its reassuring reliability . . . reveal over and over its soundness as an investment.

And its remarkably high worth when the time comes for another new Cadillac will be final proof that the original move to Cadillac was a wise one.

When your thoughts turn to Cadillac—as they surely must—a consultation between you and your lady and your dealer is in order.
